U.S. Casualties Go Higher Despite Lower Death Rate

Air France Jet Crash Fatal To 62

CARACAS (AP) — Rescuers pulled bodies, clothing and parts of an Air France airliner from the shark-infested waters of the Caribbean today, and said there was no hope that any of the 62 persons reported aboard the big jet had survived its plunge into the sea Wednesday night.

By early morning, the bodies of 11 women, and nine men had been taken from the waters off La Guaira port, seven miles north of Caracas.

The search area was in waters 100 to 150 feet deep. Divers were to go down at dawn to seek clues to the cause of the crash.

The Boeing 707 jet crashed from 33,000 feet shortly after taking off from Caracas on a flight from Santiago, Chile, to Paris. It had stopped at Lima, Peru; Guayaquil, Ecuador; Bogota, Colombia; and Caracas.

Air France said 62 persons were aboard, including 21 members of the crew and a relief crew, 19 passengers who boarded the plane at Caracas, and 22 other passengers.

Early today, the nationalities of most of the passengers had not been established, and it was not known whether any U.S. citizens were aboard.

Officials in Stockholm confirmed that two of the victims were Folke Claeson, multimillionaire Swedish businessman and founder of the annual Stockholm international fair, and his wife.

Eyewitnesses said they thought there was an explosion as the plane dropped into the sea.

Man Held For Kidnap Of Woman

HUNTINGTON, W. Va. (AP) —An arraignment before Huntington's U.S. Commissioner is scheduled today for a La Porte, Ind. man charged with grand larceny and auto theft in the kidnaping of an Ohio woman.

Bethard Johnson Jr., 25, a native of Logan, W. Va., was arrested Wednesday by troopers of the Hamlin detachment of the State Police.

Road blocks were set up in Lincoln, Logan and Wayne Counties after Mrs. Charlene B. Hinton, 47, of Clayton, Ohio, notified police that she had managed to escape from a man who had abducted her from her home Wednesday morning.

Mrs. Hinton told police that a man approached her with an ice pick while she was loading clothes into her car and ordered her to start driving.

They traveled through several areas of Ohio, including Columbus, Circleville, Portsmouth and Ironton before crossing the Ohio River and heading into Huntington, she said.

Sgt. W. F. Donahoe of the Huntington State Police said the man asked her to change seats with him so that he could drive West Virginia's mountain roads.

"She pleaded that he let her out of the car and did. That was on W. Va., 10, about six miles south of Huntington," Donahoe said.

The trooper said Johnson may face a federal kidnaping charge.

Securities Firm Sues Rating Company

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Midwestern Securities Corp. of New York and its president, Lloyd W. Sahley, Wednesday filed a $11.1 million libel suit in Cleveland against the credit rating firm of Dun & Bradstreet Inc.

The suit, filed in Cuyahoga County Common Pleas Court, charged that Dun & Bradstreet published an erroneous credit report on Midwestern in October and refused to make a requested correction. Midwestern, which deals largely in new securities issues, charged that the alleged error cost them new and existing bank loans and denied new underwritings and opportunities to deal in securities.

Tiger Booster Club Honors Fall Sports Athletes

SPEAKER AND STAR — Lou McCullough, defensive coordinator for Ohio State's football squad, congratulates Dick Radcliff for the honors bestowed upon him Wednesday. Radcliff is a junior on the Circleville football team and was named most valuable player and most valuable lineman of the squad.

Dick Radcliff, junior tackle and linebacker on the Circleville High School football team, was accorded most of the honors Wednesday at the annual Fall Sports Banquet sponsored by the Booster Club at the 4-H and Grange Building.

Radcliff, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Radcliff, 1021 S. Court St., was named the team's most valuable player by the Booster Club and also received the American Legion Lineman of the Year award.

The most valuable player award for the cross country track team went to Phil Pike, a senior member of the squad, who was the number one runner for John Lawhorn's harriers this year.

Radcliff also received the trophy presented by the CHS Stooge Club for being named to the All-League team. He was an honorable mention All-Central District gridder also.

LOU McCullough, defensive coordinator of the Ohio State University football team was the speaker.

A former head coach at Wyoming University and a coach at Indiana before moving to OSU as Woody Hayes' assistant, McCullough told of his coaching experiences.

He noted there is a value in the discipline learned in sports, a value in learning to take punishment and defeat and a value in learning to win.

"Our whole country is based on competition," he stated.

In speaking of Ohio State's loss to Michigan in the final game of the 1969 season, McCullough said, "My only regret is that our seniors won't be back next year. But our coaches and our juniors and sophomores will be back."

Denny Williams, head coach at CHS, presented the varsity and reserve teams, and with McCullougn's assistance, handed out the awards.

Captain Called As Pentagon Probes My Lai Massacre

WASHINGTON (AP) — Army investigators probing a possible coverup of the alleged My Lai massacre of South Vietnamese civilians called for questioning today Capt. Ernest Medina, commander of the unit reportedly involved in the incident.

Medina was the immediate superior of 1st Lt. William L. Calley Jr., the Army platoon leader charged with premeditated murder in the deaths of at least 109 civilians at My Lai March 16, 1968.

The inquiry is an attempt to determine if a brigade-level investigation last year into reports civilians were killed unnecessarily was whitewashed. Interviewed Wednesday were five officers who were in Vietnam at the time of the incident.

A spokesman for the panel, headed by Lt. Gen. William R. Peers, said it was not satisfied with the scope and nature of the investigation by the 11th Infantry Brigade of the Army's Americal Divisional, which concluded 20 civilians had been killed in exchanges of gunfire between allied and enemy troops.

Accounts by soldiers and ex-soldiers who said they witnessed the killings have put the figure as high as 300.

Among officers interviewed Wednesday was Chief WO Hugh Thompson, an Army helicopter pilot credited with calling attention to the possibility of "unneccessary killing" of civilians the day Medina's C Company, 1st Battalion, 20th Infantry, 11th Brigade moved into My Lai.

Another was Col. Oren K. Henderson, commander of the 11th Brigade.

The Army declined to say what charges, if any, might come out of the probe, which is separate from the investigation which resulted in charges against Calley.

GOP Unhappy At Tax Defeat

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Republicans are feuding over who's to blame for an administration setback on tax legislation. And there's a hint of a future challenge to the party's leadership.

Principals in the dispute are Senate Republican Leader Hugh Scott and Sen. Howard H. Baker Jr. of Tennessee, once rivals for the top GOP job.

Baker, who ran against Scott little more than two months ago, accused the Pennsylvania senator of improperly airing GOP family differences on the Senate floor.

The issue surfaced Wednesday after the Senate approved an amendment sponsored by Sen. Albert Gore, D-Tenn., to boost the personal income tax exemption from $600 to $800.

President Nixon opposed it as too expensive, and the administration insisted the Senate should stick with the terms drafted by its Finance Committee, offering a reduction in tax rates, but no increase in the personal exemption.

Sen. Charles H. Percy, R-Ill., came up with what he thought was a compromise, raise the exemption, but in slower steps to minimize the money loss.

When the roll was called, Percy lost, Gore won, and Scott blamed the administration.

Scott's complaint drew a Baker rebuttal on the Senate floor, and a stiffer one offstage.

Treasury Department tax experts, working in Scotts office near the Senate floor, helped draft the Percy proposal—but never endorsed their handiwork.

They said their role was that of technicians.

Cease-Fire Being Called

SAIGON (AP) — The South Vietnamese government today announced a 24-hour cease fire for Christmas and another one for New Year's.

President Nguyen Van Thieu's office said the Christmas cease-fire would begin at 6 p.m. Dec. 24 (5 a.m. EST) and end at 6 p.m. Christmas day. The announcement said the New Year cease-fire would run from 6 p.m. Dec. 31 to 6 p.m. Jan. 1.

Both sides annually call cease-fires for the Christmas period. Action drops off substantially during these cease-fires even though each side accuses the other of violations.

Last year, the South Vietnamese announced a cease-fire for Christmas but refused to call one for New Year's Day.

With memories of the big enemy offensive during the 1968 Tet cease-fire still fresh, the government did not want a New Year's truce because that would commit it to a cease-fire for Tet, the lunar new year.

Black Santas Urged By SCLC Leaders

"White Santas are very good but they're not symbolic for black people," said Mrs. Willie Barrow, a conference official.

Heavier Viet Action May Delay More U.S. Cutbacks

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon is expected to delay a decision on further U.S. troop withdrawals from South Vietnam because of a step-up in North Vietnamese infiltration and increased American casualties.

White House Press Secretary Ronald L. Ziegler had left wide open the possibility Wednesday that Nixon would disclose a third-stage troop withdrawal at his next formal news conference announced for 9 p.m. EST Monday.

Other administration sources, however, discounted the likelihood of such a cutback, pointing to the latest casualties and infiltration statistics.

Although Nixon obviously will be asked about a possible new troop pullout—to come on top of previous withdrawals totaling more than 60,000 men—sources indicated the President is more apt to say Monday he has yet to reach a decision. He may well point to factors prompting a go-slow approach.

Administration officials said recently that infiltration from the north, which had fallen notably, had increased to previous high levels. American casualties also increased in recent weeks from previous all-time lows.

Nevertheless, many believe the chief executive wants to make a committment before the end of 1969 to bring total withdrawals to more than 100,000 men, a goal he set last summer in trying to top a recommendation by Clark M. Clifford, last secretary of defense in the Johnson administration.

There were suggestions from some officials that the third-stage withdrawal announcement, when it comes, may involve a longer time span than the three-month periods in which the previous two pullouts were accomplished.

Such a slowdown would permit the President to announce a large withdrawal figure while keeping open a choice to reduce the commitment if he decided battle developments made such a move seem unwise.

U.S. forces in South Vietnam now number somewhat under 480,000. The latest withdrawal announcement, in September, involved 35,000 men. Their departure from South Vietnam would have brought the total troop commitment to 480,000 but that figure already has been reduced.

FIRE DESTROYS HOME — A house at 609 S. Court St., owned by Joseph P. Noecker was destroyed by fire today. The blaze apparently began in the attic shortly before 1 p.m. Cause is undetermined. Living in the house, a two-family home, were Mr. and Mrs. Dave Caudill and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. George Reeser.

Tax Exemption Increase Expected As Compromise

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Albert Gore predicts his Senate-adopted proposal to raise the personal income tax exemption from $600 to $800 will survive the Senate-House conference and be in the final tax reform bill.

But other congressional sources said it is more likely the two chambers will compromise on a $700 exemption.

There are two major obstacles to survival of the Tennessee Democrat's amendment as it passed the Senate Wednesday:

—President Nixon, who indicated earlier this week he would veto the bill if it included the Gore amendment.

—Rep. Wilbur D. Mills, chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, who has said many times an exemption increase is not the best way to give tax relief.

Nixon said that "to be acceptable" the tax reform bill "must meet the test of fiscal responsibility." The Gore exemption flunked this test, Nixon has indicated, because it would cause too much of a drain too soon on the Treasury.

However, White House Press Secretary Ronald L. Ziegler would not comment Wednesday on whether Nixon would veto the bill if it contained Gore's amendment. He said the President would want to see the entire bill first.

Congressional sources also said the conferees undoubtedly will make the bill more palatable to the President, and they discounted the likelihood of a veto.

Mills, who will head the House conferees, guided the massive tax reform bill through his chamber last August. It provided for cuts in individual tax rates.

The Senate, in adopting Gore's amendment 58-37 Wednesday, substituted an $800 exemption for all of the rate cuts in the bill.

However, some House sources indicated Mills might be willing to compromise the issue in conference, particularly if the Arkansas Democrat is convinced the exemption plan has strong House support.

70 Americans Die In Action Across Vietnam

SAIGON (AP) — The U.S. Command said today that 70 Americans were killed in Vietnam last week, one of the lowest weekly death tolls in the war. But the 1,049 Americans wounded pushed total U.S. battlefield casualties in the war past the 300,000 mark, to 300,829.

The 70 Americans killed was the lowest death toll in the past two months and was 46 per cent less than the previous week's 130 dead.

South Vietnamese and enemy casualty totals also were down last week, with the government reporting 373 of its soldiers killed and 953 wounded.

The allied commands said 2,177 Viet Cong and North Vietnamese were killed. The week before these death tolls were 567 government soldiers and 3,220 enemy.

Explaining the reduction in battlefield deaths, the South Vietnamese military command said enemy activity last week was at its "lowest level since the beginning of the Communist winter-spring campaign" a month ago.

Meanwhile, the U.S. Command announced that American planes attacked North Vietnamese forces in Cambodia today for the second straight day, and the south Vietnamese government said its forces joined in the attack.

A U.S. spokesman said American fighter-bombers crossed Prince Norodom Sihanouk's frontier again to attack North Vietnamese forces firing 122mm and 82mm mortars into the Cai Cai and Hong Ngu district towns and a U.S. - South Vietnamese Special Forces camp near the border about 80 miles west of Saigon.

Field reports said two South Vietnamese were killed and one wounded by the enemy shelling. There was no immediate report of American or enemy casualties.

Twenty miles closer to Saigon along the border, South Vietnamese artillery fired into Cambodia after North Vietnamese forces on the other side renewed their attack on the border town of Tuyen Binh with a barrage of 50 to 60 rockets and mortar rounds. On Wednesday, U.S. planes bombed North Vietnamese troops in Cambodia as they fled after a combined rocket, mortar and infantry assault on Tuyen Binh.

The U.S. Command said the planes both Wednesday and today were returning "enemy-initiated fire attacks originating from within the Cambodian border territory" and were exercising their "inherent right of self defense." But according to an account of the raids Wednesday, the Americans then were exercising the right of hot pursuit.

Rogers Gloomy About Chances For Viet Peace

BRUSSELS (AP) — Secretary of State William P. Rogers gloomily told the other 14 foreign ministers of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization today he is pessimistic about U.S. efforts to negotiate a peace with North Vietnam.

The United States, he said, is ready to negotiate everything at the Paris peace talks—except the right of the South Vietnamese people to determine their own political future. He said President Nixon will insist on this right for the South Vietnamese in any settlement negotiated with North Vietnam.

Rogers also expressed the astonishment and shock of Nixon's administration at allegations of American atrocities in the South Vietnamese village of My Lai.

Details Of Multiple California Slayings Are Disclosed

INDEPENDENCE, Calif. (AP) — Charles M. Manson, accused in mountain-desert area of rustling four-wheel-drive vehicles, has emerged as a key figure in the investigation of the killings of Sharon Tate and seven others in Los Angeles.

The bushy-haired, wild-bearded little man with piercing brown eyes has been tabbed the leader of a hippie-type roving band whose members call him "God" and "Satan" and whose two attorneys say clan members killed the actress and others.

Manson, 35, who with others is accused here of running a stolen car ring from a commune near Death Valley, sat stolidly Wednesday through his preliminary hearing. After witnesses said they saw him driving stolen cars, he was held for trial.

There are no charges against Manson in Los Angeles. But two attorneys there said Wednesday that a woman member of Manson's mostly female "family" told them it was some of his followers who killed Miss Tate and four others after the pregnant actress pleaded, "Let me have my baby."

The woman, Susan Denise Atkins, 21, is charged with murdering a man with whom Manson once lived. If she waives immunity to self-incrimination, a deputy district attorney says, she could become a key witness when the Los Angeles County grand jury begins a murder investigation Friday.

Shot or stabbed with Miss Tate, 26, blonde actress wife of Polish director Roman Planski, at her $200,000 home in Bel Air last Aug. 9 were Hollywood hair stylist Jay Sebring, 35; coffee heiress Abigail Folger, 26; Polish playboy Vatyk Frokowsky, 37, and Steven Parent, 18, a friend of the caretaker. Stabbed fatally the next day at their Hollywood home were Leno La Bianca, 44, and his wife Rose Mary, 38, wealthy market owners.

Miss Atkins' attorneys Paul Caruso and Richard Caballero, said she was among those who dressed in black and invaded the two death homes. But they said she was under Manson's "hypnotic spell" and "had nothing to do with the murders."

Caruso said there were three women and two men. Caballero said it was four women and one man, and said Miss Atkins told him Manson was not among them. Police say the makeup of the group was different each night.

Under arrest on murder warrants in the Tate case are Patricia Krenwinkel, 21, in Mobile, Ala.; Charles D. Watson, 24, in McKinney, Tex., and Linda Louise Kasabian, 19, brought here from Concord, N.H.

Police say they will seek murder indictments against the three and "five others," unidentified, from the Los Angeles County grand jury. It is to convene on the killings Friday and is expected to conclude its probe Monday.

Miss Atkins pleaded innocent Tuesday to a charge of murder in the killing of a Malibu musician, Gary Hinman, last July. Police say Manson lived for a time with Hinman.

A codefendant, Robert K. Beausoleil, 21, described as a Manson friend, was tried previously but the jury could not agree and a new trial was ordered.

Los Angeles County Dist. Atty. Evelle J. Younger, whose office will prosecute the murder cases, expressed hope there will be no court-imposed "gag order" on information.

He said such an order in the case of Sirhan B. Sirhan, convicted earlier this year of murdering Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, prevented clarification of "absurd rumors."

The Sirhan order forbid attorneys and public officials from discussing evidence or details in

U.S. forces in South Vietnam now number somewhat under 480,000. The latest withdrawal announcement, in September, involved 35,000 men. Their departure from South Vietnam would have brought the total troop commitment to 480,000 but that figure already has been reduced.

Living in the house, a two-family home, were Mr. and Mrs. Dave Caudill and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. George Reeser.

Tax Exemption Increase Expected As Compromise

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Albert Gore predicts his Senate-adopted proposal to raise the personal income tax exemption from $600 to $800 will survive the Senate-House conference and be in the final tax reform bill.

But other congressional sources said it is more likely the two chambers will compromise on a $700 exemption.

There are two major obstacles to survival of the Tennessee Democrat's amendment as it passed the Senate Wednesday:

—President Nixon, who indicated earlier this week he would veto the bill if it included the Gore amendment.

—Rep. Wilbur D. Mills, chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, who has said many times an exemption increase is not the best way to give tax relief.

Nixon said that "to be acceptable" the tax reform bill "must meet the test of fiscal responsibility." The Gore exemption flunked this test, Nixon has indicated, because it would cause too much of a drain too soon on the Treasury.

However, White House Press Secretary Ronald L. Ziegler would not comment Wednesday on whether Nixon would veto the bill if it contained Gore's amendment. He said the President would want to see the entire bill first.

Congressional sources also said the conferees undoubtedly will make the bill more palatable to the President, and they discounted the likelihood of a veto.

Mills, who will head the House conferees, guided the massive tax reform bill through his chamber last August. It provided for cuts in individual tax rates.

The Senate, in adopting Gore's amendment 58-37 Wednesday, substituted an $800 exemption for all of the rate cuts in the bill.

However, some House sources indicated Mills might be willing to compromise the issue in conference, particularly if the Arkansas Democrat is convinced the exemption plan has strong House support.

70 Americans Die In Action Across Vietnam

SAIGON (AP) — The U.S. Command said today that 70 Americans were killed in Vietnam last week, one of the lowest weekly death tolls in the war. But the 1,049 Americans wounded pushed total U.S. battlefield casualties in the war past the 300,000 mark, to 300,829.

The 70 Americans killed was the lowest death toll in the past two months and was 46 per cent less than the previous week's 130 dead.

South Vietnamese and enemy casualty totals also were down last week, with the government reporting 373 of its soldiers killed and 953 wounded.

The allied commands said 2,177 Viet Cong and North Vietnamese were killed. The week before these death tolls were 567 government soldiers and 3,220 enemy.

Explaining the reduction in battlefield deaths, the South Vietnamese military command said enemy activity last week was at its "lowest level since the beginning of the Communist winter-spring campaign" a month ago.

Meanwhile, the U.S. Command announced that American planes attacked North Vietnamese forces in Cambodia today for the second straight day, and the south Vietnamese government said its forces joined in the attack.

A U.S. spokesman said American fighter-bombers crossed Prince Norodom Sihanouk's frontier again to attack North Vietnamese forces firing 122mm and 82mm mortars into the Cai Cai and Hong Ngu district towns and a U.S. - South Vietnamese Special Forces camp near the border about 80 miles west of Saigon.

Field reports said two South Vietnamese were killed and one wounded by the enemy shelling. There was no immediate report of American or enemy casualties.

Twenty miles closer to Saigon along the border, South Vietnamese artillery fired into Cambodia after North Vietnamese forces on the other side renewed their attack on the border town of Tuyen Binh with a barrage of 50 to 60 rockets and mortar rounds. On Wednesday, U.S. planes bombed North Vietnamese troops in Cambodia as they fled after a combined rocket, mortar and infantry assault on Tuyen Binh.

The U.S. Command said the planes both Wednesday and today were returning "enemy-initiated fire attacks originating from within the Cambodian border territory" and were exercising their "inherent right of self defense." But according to an account of the raids Wednesday, the Americans then were exercising the right of hot pursuit.

Rogers Gloomy About Chances For Viet Peace

BRUSSELS (AP) — Secretary of State William P. Rogers gloomily told the other 14 foreign ministers of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization today he is pessimistic about U.S. efforts to negotiate a peace with North Vietnam.

The United States, he said, is ready to negotiate everything at the Paris peace talks—except the right of the South Vietnamese people to determine their own political future. He said President Nixon will insist on this right for the South Vietnamese in any settlement negotiated with North Vietnam.

Rogers also expressed the astonishment and shock of Nixon's administration at allegations of American atrocities in the South Vietnamese village of My Lai.

Details Of Multiple California Slayings Are Disclosed

INDEPENDENCE, Calif. (AP) — Charles M. Manson, accused in mountain-desert area of rustling four-wheel-drive vehicles, has emerged as a key figure in the investigation of the killings of Sharon Tate and seven others in Los Angeles.

The bushy-haired, wild-bearded little man with piercing brown eyes has been tabbed the leader of a hippie-type roving band whose members call him "God" and "Satan" — and now two attorneys say clan members killed the actress and others.

Manson, 35, who with others is accused here of running a stolen car ring from a commune near Death Valley, sat stolidly Wednesday through his preliminary hearing. After witnesses said they saw him driving stolen cars, he was held for trial.

There are no charges against Manson in Los Angeles. But two attorneys there said Wednesday that a woman member of Manson's mostly female "family" told them it was some of his followers who killed Miss Tate and four others after the pregnant actress pleaded, "Let me have my baby."

The woman, Susan Denise Atkins, 21, is charged with murdering a man with whom Manson once lived. If she waives immunity to self-incrimination, a deputy district attorney says, she could become a key witness when the Los Angeles County grand jury begins a murder investigation Friday.

Shot or stabbed with Miss Tate, 26, blonde actress wife of Polish director Roman Planski, at her $200,000 home in Bel Air last Aug. 9 were Hollywood hair stylist Jay Sebring, 35; coffee heiress Abigail Folger, 26; Polish playboy Vatyk Frokowsky, 37, and Steven Parent, 18, a friend of the caretaker. Stabbed fatally the next day at their Hollywood home were Leno La-Bianca, 44, and his wife Rose Mary, 38, wealthy market owners.

Miss Atkins' attorneys Paul Caruso and Richard Caballero, said she was among those who dressed in black and invaded the two death homes. But they said she was under Manson's "hypnotic spell" and "had nothing to do with the murders."

Caruso said there were three women and two men. Caballero said it was four women and one man, and said Miss Atkins told him Manson was not among them. Police say the makeup of the group was different each night.

Under arrest on murder warrants in the Tate case are Patricia Krenwinkel, 21, in Mobile, Ala.; Charles D. Watson, 24, in McKinney, Tex., and Linda Louise Kasabian, 19, brought here from Concord, N.H.

Police say they will seek murder indictments against the three and "five others," unidentified, from the Los Angeles County grand jury. It is to convene on the killings Friday and is expected to conclude its probe Monday.

Miss Atkins pleaded innocent Tuesday to a charge of murder in the killing of a Malibu musician, Gary Hinman, last July. Police say Manson lived for a time with Hinman.

A codefendant, Robert K. Beausoleil, 21, described as a Manson friend, was tried previously but the jury could not agree and a new trial was ordered.

Los Angeles County Dist. Atty. Evelle J. Younger, whose office will prosecute the murder cases, expressed hope there will be no court-imposed "gag order" on information.

He said such an order in the case of Sirhan B. Sirhan, convicted earlier this year of murdering Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, prevented clarification of "absurd rumors."

The Sirhan order forbid attorneys and public officials from discussing evidence or details in

Westfall To Submit Levy Again

At a special election, to be held Dec. 12 voters of Westfall school district will be voting again on a new four mill operating levy for the schools of the district.

The issue was defeated by 182 votes at the election in November. An operating levy supplies money for the day to day expenses of a school district.

These expenses are salaries of employees, textbooks, repair of buildings and equipment, replacement of equipment, transportation, heat, light, etc.

When the school budget was set up for 1970, the reappraisal of real estate was taken into consideration and the anticipated increase in revenue was included in the budget.

* * *

EVEN with this increased revenue, the budget shows a deficit of $22,000 for JANUARY 1, 1971. This is a result of inflation depleting the balance that the Board of Education has been able to carry over at the end of a calendar year.

Since the board of education does not receive its settlement of real estate tax money until the latter part of March, it should have enough money in its treasury to pay January and February bills.

The only money received by the Westfall Board of Education during the months of January and February is from the State Foundation Program. This amounts to approximately $13,000 per month.

This means an advance draw must be made on anticipated revenues coming in March to meet current expenditures.

This would put the district further in the red at the beginning of the 1972 calendar year. A school district should not continue to operate with such deficit spending, therefore the board of education is asking for more operating money.

Jaycees Seek Outstanding Young Farmer Candidates

An outstanding young farmer in Pickaway County is being sought by Circleville Jaycees in the program designed to bring about a better understanding of the problems and achievements of the farmer in the local area.

A survey of farmers between the ages of 21 and 35 will be climaxed with the naming of Pickaway County's Outstanding Young Farmer for 1969-70.

This is the 14th year the United States Jaycees have conducted the national OF program and the 10th year the Circleville Jaycees have participated.

"Agriculture is America's oldest and biggest industry," Newell Stevenson, chairman of the Circleville Jaycee OYF program, said. "And as a consequence of the acumen and efficiency of the men engaged in this industry, ours is the best fed, best clothed nation in the world."

* * *

"IT is our hope that the OYF program will result in a better understanding and appreciation of the role the farmer plays in our daily lives."

Reports compiled on the basis of interviews by the Jaycees, will be given to a special committee which will select Pickaway County's Outstanding Young Farmer. Judging is on the basis of career progress, conservation practices and community service.

The winner will be announced at the Distinguished Service Awards banquet Jan. 22, 1970.

Outstanding young farmers from local communities enter the state competition. The state winner advances to the National Awards program at Bellville, Ill.

Past winners of Pickaway County's OYF are Dave Bolinder, John Stevenson, Darwin Hay, John Skinner, Glen Yaple, Bill Richards, John Strawser, Edwin Taylor and James Hastings.

These men have contributed to the community both in their farming practice and leadership.

IF you, as a person, are interested or know anyone who is interested in joining the list of winners, contact Newell Stevenson, 474-2463, or George Hamrick, 474-7534, for applications. Deadline for applications is Dec. 12. They must be completed and returned to George Hamrick by Dec. 19.

The winner of the Outstanding Young Farmer for Pickaway County must be selected and submitted to the state by Dec 31.

Beavercreek Jaycees will host the state OYF for 1970.

Pickaway Grange

SCIOTO VALLEY GRANGE

Scioto Valley Grange opened in the regular session on Nov. 25 with Worthy Master Harold Bumgarner in the chair.

Mrs. Herman Berger asked for Christmas gifts for the Veterans Hospital be brought to our next meeting on Dec. 9.

The usual bills were presented and ordered paid. A donation was given to the Pickaway County TB and Health Christmas seals.

The charter was draped in memory of Mrs. Fannie Millar. A resolution of respect was read by Mrs. Ralph Fisher.

We will have a gift exchange for our Christmas party at our next meeting. Each family was also asked to bring cookies.

The Grange decided to begin the meetings at 7:30 p.m. during the winter months.

Mrs. Ralph Fisher presented the following program. Theme, "For Times Such as These;" opening song, first two stanzas of "Count Your Blessings;" "Psalm 100," Mrs. Ralph Fisher; "Thanksgiving Prayer," Mrs. Harold Bumgarner; "Veterans Honored on Special Day," written by Carol Binns; Mrs. Herman Berger; "One Nation Under God," Mrs. John Dowler; "A View of the Moon," John Dowler. A game was played using the letters of the alphabet and name something for which we are thankful.

"Education Makes the Difference," an editorial written by Mr. S. C. Cashman of Buckeye News, Mrs. Paul Kuhlwein; "Toughts and Smiles," Ralph Fisher; "Take Time," Mrs. Frank Hudson; closing song, last two stanzas of "Count Your Blessings."

Miss Cleona Dunnick, Mrs. Elda Behnke and Mrs. Phylis Russell served delicious refreshments. The tables were decorated for Thanksgiving and every one enjoyed the social hour.

Congress To Curb Swiss Accounts

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress begins work today to curb the illegal use of secret foreign bank accounts, an attack based in part on a multimillion-dollar swindle of the Navy—one of the biggest fraud cases ever cracked by federal authorities.

The case involved a St. Louis company and several of its officers who defrauded the Navy on more than $47 million in contracts for rocket launchers and funneled more than $4 million in overcharges and kickbacks into secret Swiss bank accounts.

In gaining evidence that led to a 30-count indictment, the Justice Department was able—for the first time in history—to crack Swiss bank secrecy.

The principal defendants included Francis N. Rosenbaum, a Washington lawyer with good social and political connections, and Andrew L. Stone, a multimillionaire St. Louis businessman. Both pleaded guilty to several counts of the indictment.

With the other defendants, they are due for sentencing here next month before U.S. Dist. Judge Oliver Gasch. Rosenbaum and Stone each could be sentenced to 45 years in jail and fined $90,000.

The House Banking Committee starts today drafting legislation which would require record keeping and reporting by persons in the United States who deal with foreign banks protected by secrecy laws and by couriers who whisk satchels of secret cash from this country into the hands of discreet foreign bankers.

Records in the rocket launcher case disclose:

The conspiracy spanned a four-year period, from January 1963 to February, 1967.

When it began, the Chromcraft Crop. of St. Louis had been receiving Navy contracts to manufacture 2.75-inch rocket launchers for a year. In 1963, Rosenbaum was a director of and special counsel to Chromcraft. Stone was the principal stockholder and chief exectuve officer.

They submitted cost estimates to the Navy for the rocket launchers, including invoices from a subcontractor, Scientific Electronics, Ltd., of Beverly Hills, Calif. The invoices were fraudulent and the Navy overpaid on the contracts for the launchers.

Scientific Electronics was nothing more than a desk drawer company and never did any work for Chromcraft.

Later, Scientific was dropped and another dummy corporation, Bregman Electronics, Inc., was incorporated in New York City to continue the fraud.

In 1966, Chromcraft was merged into Alsco, Inc., an Akron, Ohio, firm. Chromcraft's St. Louis rocket launcher manufacturing operation became the Techfab Division of Alsco. Rosenbaum and Stone retained with Alsco the positions they had held with Chromcraft.

The false pricing and overpayments by the Navy continued until 1967 under this new setup.

House Action On Defense Money Bill Expected Soon

WASHINGTON (AP) — House action is expected early next week on a $69.96 billion defense appropriations bill, slashed deeper than any military spending measure in 15 years but still containing funds for the administration's Safeguard ABM system.

The House Appropriations Committee aproved the bill, after trimming it by $5.32 billion, in a flurry of congressional activity on money bills Wednesday.

Since the military spending bill is headed for a new round of efforts to cut funds for the Safeguard deployment and other weapons, prospects for Congress completing passage of it by Christmas are reported dim.

And while the Appropriations Committee was acting Wednesday, one of its subcommittees reportedly put out a $1.6 billion foreign aid money bill that could lead to a Senate-House donnybrook over jets for Nationalist China.

The foreign aid bill, scheduled to clear the full House committee Monday, reportedly contains the $54.5 million for a squadron of jets for Formosa that the House authorized by surprise two weeks ago—and that was promptly knocked out by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

The $1.6 billion for foreign aid would be a $600 million cut from the $2.2 billion authorized by the House.

The defense and foreign aid money bills are the last of 13 congressional appropriations and leaders hope to put them through the House Monday and Tuesday. They then go to the Senate.

Running later than any year in memory, Congress has completed action on only four of the 13 bills containing $26.3 billion of the $195.9 bilion budgeted for the federal government. Most agencies are operating on a continuing resolution that runs out Saturday.

In other appropriations actions Wednesday, the Senate Appropriations Committee approved a House-passed continuing resolution to keep the government in business past Saturday, and sent it to the Senate floor for approval today.

The $5.3 billion defense cut is the biggest since 1954 when $6.3 billion was lopped off after the Korean ceasefire.

The slice is off President Nixon's original request for $75.28 billion and brings military spending for the fiscal year starting last July 1 in line with cuts announced by Defense Secretary Melvin R. Laird.

Other senior awards went to Paul Bost, Richard Cordle, William Keener, Brent Liston, Kevin Miller, Hal Spencer, Billy Thomas and Dick Walters.

In looking forward to next year, Williams told the parents and fans at the banquet that there were six sophomore letter winners, three All-SCO league juniors and members of an undefeated freshman team to bolster the CHS grid picture. Circleville had a 3-7 record this year.

The junior high and freshman football teams were presented by Dennis Stewart, seventh and eighth grade coach.

Varsity and reserve cheerleaders were introduced by Mrs. David Gillispie. Master of ceremonies at the banquet was Jerry Leist. Ed Davis, president of the Booster Club, gave the welcome.

The American Legion award was presented by MacDonald Schumm, commander of the Hall Adkins Post.

Mrs. Mary Stephens was recognized by the Booster Club for her work in decorating and assisting in preparation for the banquets during the past nine years.

Ruth Walisa, 1238 S. Pickaway St., won the car presented by the Booster Club and Everett Beers, Ashville, won the radio.

the case. He said he has no indication there will be such an order.

In Independence, Manson was charged with two counts of receiving stolen property and one of operating a stolen vehicle. After the hearing, he was ordered held for arraignment Dec. 12. Bond was fixed at $25,000.

His attorney argued: "There's no evidence that Mr. Manson knew that vehicles were stolen. The simple act of driving a vehicle, even if it is stolen, is not enough. There has to be intent."

Manson is no stranger to trouble. From followers and police came sketches of a life of problems, imprisonments, menial jobs.

A Los Angeles Times account said that in his free time behind bars, Manson became interested in the occult. Officials termed his intelligence "superior."

He also took up the guitar, discovered he could sing and began writing music.

Then, on parole, he discovered the hippie-style life and a friend said "a whole new world" opened for him. He went to San Francisco's Haight-Ashbury district and acquired a following of hippie-types—most of them girls.

They left Haight-Ashbury April 12, 1968, in an old school bus, converted into living quarters for 14 young men and women—most of them women. The bus broke down near Oxnard, Calif., and one rainy afternoon, they ducked into a ranch full of old movie sets. They were still living there when the slayings occurred.

When deputies raided the place last August, shortly after the killings, and made arrests on prostitution and drug allegations, Manson moved his "family" into a canyon area populated by hippie-types near Death Valley.

With a combination of pronouncements—"Follow my orders or meet a horrible death"—and captivating glances, Manson convinced some of his clan he owned them. "We belong to him, not to ourselves," Miss Atkins' attorneys quoted her as saying. "He is a very beautiful man. If Charles said it was right, it was right."

"He was magnetic," another follower, Sandra Good Pugh, 26, told interviewers in Independence.

On Oct. 12, a dozen sheriff's deputies and highway patrolmen hunting for a band that was stealing cars and converting them to dune buggies, raided the commune. They escorted seven persons out of Manson's cabin. Patrolman James Purcell, who led the raid, said he returned to search the little building and found Manson.

Said Purcell: "He was in a very tiny cupboard beneath the bathroom sink . . . three feet high, 18 to 20 inches wide and 12 to 18 inches deep."

Jaycees Seek Outstanding Young Farmer Candidates

An outstanding young farmer in Pickaway County is being sought by Circleville Jaycees in the program designed to bring about a better understanding of the problems and achievements of the farmer in the local area.

A survey of farmers between the ages of 21 and 35 will be climaxed with the naming of Pickaway County's Outstanding Young Farmer for 1969-70.

This is the 14th year the United States Jaycees have conducted the national OF program and the 10th year the Circleville Jaycees have participated.

"Agriculture is America's oldest and biggest industry," Newell Stevenson, chairman of the Circleville Jaycee OYF program, said. "And as a consequence of the acumen and efficiency of the men engaged in this industry, ours is the best fed, best clothed nation in the world."

* * *

"IT is our hope that the OYF program will result in a better understanding and appreciation of the role the farmer plays in our daily lives."

Reports compiled on the basis of interviews by the Jaycees, will be given to a special committee which will select Pickaway County's Outstanding Young Farmer. Judging is on the basis of career progress, conservation practices and community service.

The winner will be announced at the Distinguished Service Awards banquet Jan. 22, 1970.

Outstanding young farmers from local communities enter the state competition. The state winner advances to the National Awards program at Bellville, Ill.

Past winners of Pickaway County's OYF are Dave Bolinder, John Stevenson, Darwin Hay, John Skinner, Glen Yaple, Bill Richards, John Strawser, Edwin Taylor and James Hastings.

These men have contributed to the community both in their farming practice and leadership.

IF you, as a person, are interested or know anyone who is interested in joining the list of winners, contact Newell Stevenson, 474-2463, or George Hamrick, 474-7534, for applications. Deadline for applications is Dec. 12. They must be completed and returned to George Hamrick by Dec. 19.

The winner of the Outstanding Young Farmer for Pickaway County must be selected and submitted to the state by Dec 31.

Beavercreek Jaycees will host the state OYF for 1970.

London Pair Top Municipal Court Docket

Two London men appeared before Judge Sterling Lamb in Municipal Court Thursday, on charges of intoxication.

Cited by Police Sgt. Rod List were William and George McCallister, London. Both received $10 fines.

Gary Sowers, 18, Williamsport, faced charges of driving without an operators license and driving a vehicle with fictitious plates. Judge Lamb fined Sowers $50 on the first charge and $25 on the second, both suspended.

David Roy, 18, of 381 Eva Drive, forfeited $29 bond for speeding 79 in a 60 mile zone.

Failing to yield from a private drive brought a $24 fine to Russell Hixon, 59, of 480½ Dearborn Ave.

Eleven other violators were fined a total of $206 for speeding.

When sea gulls devoured a horde of large black crickets that threatened to wipe out the Mormons' first grain crop in Utah in 1848, the sect was so grateful that it passed laws protecting the bird and erected a monument to it in Salt Lake City's Temple Square.

Westfall To Submit Levy Again

At a special election, to be held Dec. 12 voters of Westfall school district will be voting again on a new four mill operating levy for the schools of the district.

The issue was defeated by 182 votes at the election in November. An operating levy supplies money for the day to day expenses of a school district.

These expenses are salaries of employees, textbooks, repair of buildings and equipment, replacement of equipment, transportation, heat, light, etc.

When the school budget was set up for 1970, the reappraisal of real estate was taken into consideration and the anticipated increase in revenue was included in the budget.

* * *

EVEN with this increased revenue, the budget shows a deficit of $22,000 for JANUARY 1, 1971. This is a result of inflation depleting the balance that the Board of Education has been able to carry over at the end of a calendar year.

Since the board of education does not receive its settlement of real estate tax money until the latter part of March, it should have enough money in its treasury to pay January and February bills.

The only money received by the Westfall Board of Education during the months of January and February is from the State Foundation Program. This amounts to approximately $13,000 per month.

This means an advance draw must be made on anticipated revenues coming in March to meet current expenditures.

This would put the district further in the red at the beginning of the 1972 calendar year. A school district should not continue to operate with such deficit spending, therefore the board of education is asking for more operating money.

Pickaway Grange

SCIOTO VALLEY GRANGE

Scioto Valley Grange opened in the regular session on Nov. 25 with Worthy Master Harold Bumgarner in the chair.

Mrs. Herman Berger asked for Christmas gifts for the Veterans Hospital be brought to our next meeting on Dec. 9.

The usual bills were presented and ordered paid. A donation was given to the Pickaway County TB and Health Christmas seals.

The charter was draped in memory of Mrs. Fannie Millar. A resolution of respect was read by Mrs. Ralph Fisher.

We will have a gift exchange for our Christmas party at our next meeting. Each family was also asked to bring cookies.

The Grange decided to begin the meetings at 7:30 p.m. during the winter months.

Mrs. Ralph Fisher presented the following program. Theme, "For Times Such as These:" opening song, first two stanzas of "Count Your Blessings;" "Psalm 100," Mrs. Ralph Fisher: "Thanksgiving Prayer," Mrs. Harold Bumgarner: "Veterans Honored on Special Day," written by Carol Binns; Mrs. Herman Berger; "One Nation Under God," Mrs. John Dowler; "A View of the Moon," John Dowler. A game was played using the letters of the alphabet and name something for which we are thankful.

"Education Makes the Difference," an editorial written by Mr. S. C. Cashman of Buckeye News, Mrs. Paul Kuhlwein; "Toughts and Smiles," Ralph Fisher; "Take Time," Mrs. Frank Hudson; closing song, last two stanzas of "Count Your Blessings."

Miss Cleona Dunnick, Mrs. Elda Behnke and Mrs. Phylis Russell served delicious refreshments. The tables were decorated for Thanksgiving and every one enjoyed the social hour.

Congress To Curb Swiss Accounts

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress begins work today to curb the illegal use of secret foreign bank accounts, an attack based in part on a multimillion-dollar swindle of the Navy—one of the biggest fraud cases ever cracked by federal authorities.

The case involved a St. Louis company and several of its officers who defrauded the Navy on more than $47 million in contracts for rocket launchers and funneled more than $4 million in overcharges and kickbacks into secret Swiss bank accounts.

In gaining evidence that led to a 30-count indictment, the Justice Department was able—for the first time in history—to crack Swiss bank secrecy.

The principal defendants included Francis N. Rosenbaum, a Washington lawyer with good social and political connections, and Andrew L. Stone, a multimillionaire St. Louis businessman. Both pleaded guilty to several counts of the indictment.

With the other defendants, they are due for sentencing here next month before U.S. Dist. Judge Oliver Gasch. Rosenbaum and Stone each could be sentenced to 45 years in jail and fined $90,000.

The House Banking Committee starts today drafting legislation which would require record keeping and reporting by persons in the United States who deal with foreign banks protected by secrecy laws and by couriers who whisk satchels of secret cash from this country into the hands of discreet foreign bankers.

Records in the rocket launcher case disclose:

The conspiracy spanned a four-year period, from January 1963 to February, 1967.

When it began, the Chromcraft Crop. of St. Louis had been receiving Navy contracts to manufacture 2.75-inch rocket launchers for a year. In 1963, Rosenbaum was a director of and special counsel to Chromcraft. Stone was the principal stockholder and chief exectuve officer.

They submitted cost estimates to the Navy for the rocket launchers, including invoices from a subcontractor, Scientific Electronics, Ltd., of Beverly Hills, Calif. The invoices were fraudulent and the Navy overpaid on the contracts for the launchers.

Scientific Electronics was nothing more than a desk drawer company and never did any work for Chromcraft.

Later, Scientific was dropped and another dummy corporation, Bregman Electronics, Inc., was incorporated in New York City to continue the fraud.

In 1966, Chromcraft was merged into Alsco, Inc., an Akron, Ohio, firm. Chromcraft's St. Louis rocket launcher manufacturing operation became the Techfab Division of Alsco. Rosenbaum and Stone retained with Alsco the positions they had held with Chromcraft.

The false pricing and overpayments by the Navy continued until 1967 under this new setup.

House Action On Defense Money Bill Expected Soon

WASHINGTON (AP) — House action is expected early next week on a $69.96 billion defense appropriations bill, slashed deeper than any military spending measure in 15 years but still containing funds for the administration's Safeguard ABM system.

The House Appropriations Committee aproved the bill, after trimming it by $5.32 billion, in a flurry of congressional activity on money bills Wednesday.

Since the military spending bill is headed for a new round of efforts to cut funds for the Safeguard deployment and other weapons, prospects for Congress completing passage of it by Christmas are reported dim.

And while the Appropriations Committee was acting Wednesday, one of its subcommittees reportedly put out a $1.6 billion foreign aid money bill that could lead to a Senate-House donnybrook over jets for Nationalist China.

The foreign aid bill, scheduled to clear the full House committee Monday, reportedly contains the $54.5 million for a squadron of jets for Formosa that the House authorized by surprise two weeks ago—and that was promptly knocked out by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

The $1.6 billion for foreign aid would be a $600 million cut from the $2.2 billion authorized by the House.

The defense and foreign aid money bills are the last of 13 congressional appropriations and leaders hope to put them through the House Monday and Tuesday. They then go to the Senate.

Running later than any year in memory, Congress has completed action on only four of the 13 bills containing $26.3 billion of the $195.9 bilion budgeted for the federal government. Most agencies are operating on a continuing resolution that runs out Saturday.

In other appropriations actions Wednesday, the Senate Appropriations Committee approved a House-passed continuing resolution to keep the government in business past Saturday, and sent it to the Senate floor for approval today.

The $5.3 billion defense cut is the biggest since 1954 when $6.3 billion was lopped off after the Korean ceasefire.

The slice is off President Nixon's original request for $75.28 billion and brings military spending for the fiscal year starting last July 1 in line with cuts announced by Defense Secretary Melvin R. Laird.

Other senior awards went to Paul Bost, Richard Cordle, William Keener, Brent Liston, Kevin Miller, Hal Spencer, Billy Thomas and Dick Walters.

In looking forward to next year, Williams told the parents and fans at the banquet that there were six sophomore letter winners, three All-SCO league juniors and members of an undefeated freshman team to bolster the CHS grid picture. Circleville had a 3-7 record this year.

The junior high and freshman football teams were presented by Dennis Stewart, seventh and eighth grade coach.

Varsity and reserve cheerleaders were introduced by Mrs. David Gillispie. Master of ceremonies at the banquet was Jerry Leist. Ed Davis, president of the Booster Club, gave the welcome.

The American Legion award was presented by MacDonald Schumm, commander of the Hall Adkins Post.

Mrs. Mary Stephens was recognized by the Booster Club for her work in decorating and assisting in preparation for the banquets during the past nine years.

Ruth Walisa, 1238 S. Pickaway St., won the car presented by the Booster Club and Everett Beers, Ashville, won the radio.

the case. He said he has no indication there will be such an order.

In Independence, Manson was charged with two counts of receiving stolen property and one of operating a stolen vehicle. After the hearing, he was ordered held for arraignment Dec. 12. Bond was fixed at $25,000.

His attorney argued: "There's no evidence that Mr. Manson knew that vehicles were stolen. The simple act of driving a vehicle, even if it is stolen, is not enough. There has to be intent."

Manson is no stranger to trouble. From followers and police came sketches of a life of problems, imprisonments, menial jobs.

A Los Angeles Times account said that in his free time behind bars, Manson became interested in the occult. Officials termed his intelligence "superior.' '

He also took up the guitar, discovered he could sing and began writing music.

Then, on parole, he discovered the hippie-style life and a friend said "a whole new world" opened for him. He went to San Francisco's Haight-Ashbury district and acquired a following of hippie-types—most of them girls.

They left Haight-Ashbury April 12, 1968, in an old school bus, converted into living quarters for 14 young men and women—most of them women. The bus broke down near Oxnard, Calif., and one rainy afternoon, they ducked into a ranch full of old movie sets. They were still living there when the slayings occurred.

When deputies raided the place last August, shortly after the killings, and made arrests on prostitution and drug allegations, Manson moved his "family" into a canyon area populated by hippie-types near Death Valley.

With a combination of pronouncements—"Follow my orders or meet a horrible death"—and captivating glances, Manson convinced some of his clan he owned them. "We belong to him, not to ourselves," Miss Atkins' attorneys quoted her as saying. "He is a very beautiful man. If Charles said it was right, it was right."

"He was magnetic," another follower, Sandra Good Pugh, 26, told interviewers in Independence.

On Oct. 12, a dozen sheriff's deputies and highway patrolmen hunting for a band that was stealing cars and converting them to dune buggies, raided the commune. They escorted seven persons out of Manson's cabin. Patrolman James Purcell, who led the raid, said he returned to search the little building and found Manson.

Said Purcell: "He was in a very tiny cupboard beneath the bathroom sink . . . three feet high, 18 to 20 inches wide and 12 to 18 inches deep."

Hold Findlay Man On Theft Charges

FINDLAY, Ohio (AP) — FBI agents arrested Dennis B. Contris, 22, Wednesday on charges filed in connection with the theft of 22 pistols and 10 rifles from a Lima National Guard armory in July.

Contris, owner of a local meat packing company, was charged with receiving five .45 caliber automatic pistols and two M1 rifles. He was the fifth person to be charged in connection with the theft.

Glenn And Metzenbaum Disagree On Space Outlays

NEWARK, Ohio (AP) — Two Democrats who probably will oppose each other for the U.S. Senate nomination disagreed sharply Wednesday night on the merits of America's space program.

Howard Metzenbaum and John Glenn apeared on the same platform at a Democratic party district workshop here.

Neither has officially entered the Senate race, but each indicated he will formally announce soon.

Metzenbaum, a Cleveland millionaire, called for a drastic cutback in expenditures for the space program and military. He said the government should place more emphasis on solving the problems of poverty and water and air pollution.

Glenn, a former astronaut, said that if spending for space is continued at its present level this country soon will reap many scientific benefits.

On Vietnam, both potential candidates questioned U.S. presence there.

Glenn contended that the war can be brought to an end only after South Vietnamese leaders make political reforms and instill in the people a national pride and desire to win.

Metzenbaum said the American soldiers cannot be blamed for alleged atrocities against civilians.

Metzenbaum said he does not condone the atrocities, but concluded:

"Our soldiers are doing our dirty work and if these atrocities have brought our guilt out into the open, let's not cleanse our guilt by condemning a handful of soldiers."

Feminine Stability

Hang your heads in shame, men. Unless a U. S. Labor Department report was prepared entirely by women, the hard truth is that single girls are not only more stable in their jobs but made of sterner stuff.

At least they are during working hours, and that is all the department is concerned about. Statistics compiled in the study show women stay home sick for shorter periods than men, and voluntarily switch jobs less frequently.

Single women averaged only 3.9 sick days a year, compared with 5.6 for all women, 4.3 for bachelors and 5.3 for all men. Ten per cent of the men sampled changed jobs in an average year, but only seven per cent of the ladies.

What is more, single women improve their employment stability with age, reports the department. Spinsters who start work at 20 have spent an average of 15.5 years with the same employer by the time they reach 45. Men can't begin to match that.

As with all generalized statistics, however, there are exceptions to every rule. That is about the only hope the department gives the working male to salvage something from his fractured ego.

Oil From Garbage

A barrel of crude oil from a ton of garbage? That is what the U.S. Bureau of Mines reports it came up with when its scientists were looking for ways to make petroleum from coal.

Chemists treated wet, ground-up garbage and paper with carbon monoxide and steam under pressure at about 700 degrees Fahrenheit. Ninety per cent of the organic material remaining was found to be 40 per cent crude oil and 60 per cent water.

Also noted was the fact oil extracted from garbage contains little sulfur, which is one of the culprits in air pollution. Despite the obvious fact this particular study had nothing to do with coal, one can only hope the bureau continues its intriguing research.

A garbage disposal is one thing, but a device which turns it into something usable — what an invention that would be! One point the bureau neglected to mention was the cost. But, then, cost accounting never has been one of the government's strong points.

According To Boyle

By LYNN SHERR (For Hal Boyle)

NEW YORK (AP) — Once it took fig leaves to make the world's great art works acceptable to a prudish public.

Then came centuries of social change, and the fig leaves dropped away from the likes of Adam, David and Venus.

Now, author-humorist Dan Greenburg thinks the bodies ought to be covered up again.

With tongue planted morally in cheek, Greenburg, best known for writing "How to Be a Jewish Mother," recommends clothing naked paintings and statues in the interest of decency. And he does it, not with fig leaves, but with painted-on clothing.

Greenburg's book, "Porno-Graphics—The Shame of our Art Museums," is a super put-on which is really more of a takeoff. It consists of 19 reproductions of the world's nudest art works, demurely camouflaged beneath acetate overlays and cardboard cutouts in the style of the original artist.

Venus de Milo wears a toga to cover her armless torso. A Modigliani nude sports a slinky red dress. Michaelangelo's Adam and Eve, together with the snake, are attired in bright-hued bikinis.

And Botticelli's Venus sails along on her half-shell with yards more golden hair than the artist intended.

All the cover-ups are removable—to expose the works au naturel.

Even the $2.95 price tag peels off from the book cover.

"I used to do these in my spare time—as a joke," Greenburg, 33, explained in his East Side Manhattan duplex apartment where the walls are decorated with a real Campbell's soup can and an empty cheese carton.

"I had all these nudist magazines, see, and I wanted to clean them up," he said. "And then I realized there were a lot of other filthy pictures in the house and so I cleaned them up, too."

It began, he recalled, with a post card of two birds touching beaks. Greenburg pasted a snip of black tape over the point of beak contact.

"He had it framed and hanging up when I first met him," explained his wife, Nora Ephron Greenburg, a free-lance writer herself. "I was glad to see he was a man with the right values."

From post cards and nudist magazines, Greenburg graduated to art books with high quality reproductions. Now, at least one friend—actor George Segal and his wife—has asked him to clothe a full-sized painting of a naked lady on the wall.

Trained as an artist at the University of Illinois, Greenburg earned a master's degree at UCLA and spent several years in advertising before turning to full-time writing.

He has written several novels, many magazine articles and two one-act off-Broadway plays besides the best-selling "Jewish Mother."

The Business World

By JOHN CUNNIFF

NEW YORK (AP) — Like the darkness of approaching winter, the stock market these days is a gloomy place indeed, with only the shrewd, the calculating and the very patient investors able to grin through it all.

The market news seems very bad, primarily because of two factors: inflation and the battle to beat inflation. Either way, corporate profits are going to be squeezed.

Market prospects often are said to be tied up with hopes for peace in Vietnam, but some pollsters claim that the war-peace factor has been much less of a market influence than advertised in recent months.

The inflation-deflation battle seems to be more immediately involved in tracing the route taken by the Dow Jones averages.

Recent announcements from the White House indicate that pressure will be kept on the economy, the aim being to bring inflation out of prices. Lower profits are in prospects, therefore, and that means little support for stock prices.

Since November 10 the Dow Jones industrial average has dropped from 863 points and now threatens to fall right out of the 800s.

Investors are worried. Evidence abounds that the slowdown is here. But inflation is far from being stopped. Wholesale prices rose strongly in November, meaning more retail price increases in the next few months.

At the very time when workers are becoming less able to afford higher prices, the prices continue going higher. Manufacturers are beginning to shorten work weeks, the threat of layoffs increases—and so do prices.

The help-wanted advertising index, a measure of want-ad volume in 52 daily newspapers, dropped sharply in October from 235 to 227. The National Industrial Conference Board, which maintains the index, comments coldly: "Declines in the index have generally been followed by increases in unemployment."

Mass psychology, perhaps as a result, appears to be changing. Measures of consumer confidence have been dipping lately. A recessionary psychology, in which purchases are delayed, may be setting in now.

It isn't only the threat to jobs or increasing prices that breeds the somber mood. Daily, now, people are reminded by prominent economists that the nation could slip into a recession—and that it might be in one now.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

A FATHER marched his four children up to the ticket booth of a theatre running a big hit picture and asked, "What's the price for the cheapest seats?" "They're all the same," he was told. "Three bucks apiece." "Well, how much for the kids?" he persisted. "No reduction," was the answer. "Three bucks a ticket." "Funny," mused the father. "Airlines only charge half fare for children." "Okay," nodded the ticket seller. "Put the kids on a plane!"

Speaking Of Your Health

By Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

What is the meaning or importance of swelling of the feet?

Mr. G.W., Wisconsin

Dear Mr. W.: The meaning of swelling of the feet and the ankles varies with the age group, the general physical condition and the duration of the condition. In many instances, swelling of the feet may simply be the result of too tight, constricting garters and shoes.

People with varicose veins and those who stand on their feet for long periods of the day may have swelling of the feet and ankles as the day progresses. In many instances the swelling disappears in the morning because the feet are elevated during the night.

Interference with the blood supply, circulatory disturbances, chronic heart and lung conditions and kidney disorders are the more serious reasons for persistent swelling of the feet and ankles.

The importance, therefore, of this swelling is that the basic reason be found to thoroughly explain its presence. Signs and symptoms such as these are simply nature's warning and the body's plea to be recognized.

Do repeated infections of the bladder mean the possibility of a kidney infection?

Mrs. M.L., Michigan

Dear Mrs. L.: Cystitis is the medical term for inflammation or infection of the inner lining of the urinary bladder. It is a frequent condition seen more often in women than in men. Young girls, particularly, are prone, especially before they are taught good hygiene.

Some irritation of the bladder should be suspected when there is more than usual frequency of urination associated with some burning or painful sensation. With cystitis there is an urgent need to urinate which is not completely fulfilled after the bladder seems to be empty. The cause of cystitis is a germ or some type of bacteria which has found its way into the bladder. Repeated attacks of cystitis do not necessarily mean that the kidneys which control the flow of urine through the bladder, must be involved.

It is wise, however, to have the entire urinary tract studied by the many excellent means that are now available. This will insure that the infection will be localized and kept from spreading. Most cases of cystitis are controlled and even cured with antibiotics, sulfa drugs and a diet free from highly seasoned foods and the irritation of alcohol.

Is Parkinson's disease a progressive one or can it be stopped if treated early?

Mr. J.D., Rhode Island

Dear Mr. D.: Unfortunately Parkinson's disease, or paralysis agitans, is considered a progressive physical disease of the nervous system. The rate of progress varies with each individual. Now there is a new group of drugs which seem to be effective in slowing the advance of this disorder. Many exciting experimental drugs are on the horizon, each offering promise for the control and even cure of this distressing illness.

Dependence on a laxative is a curable habit.

Sonic blasts from military jets flying out from and to nearby Edwards Air Force Base daily rattle the windows and shake the walls in the town of Boron, Calif., these days. Though Boron has only a population of 3,500 it's truly a BOOM town!

The report of a town being bothered by the thunder of sonic blasts isn't exactly earth-shaking news. On the other hand — maybe it really is!

Larger cities may have bigger traffic jams but you must admit Boron's one of the noisiest places in the world.

Whether they are proud of it or not — we wouldn't know — but the citizens of Boron have one distinction — they live in a place where you CAN'T hear a pin drop!

Hanoi Is Hypocritical

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN

The stories of the alleged massacre at Songmy leave a lot of us just as "shocked and sick" as they left Secretary of Defense Melvin Laird. But there is some reassurance to be derived from the fact that our side does not practice massacre as policy. Can Hanoi, which has had the hypocritical effrontery to accuse us of "genocide," honestly make the same claim?

A long time ago some of us felt "shocked and sick" over reports of atrocities in Southeast Asia. They weren't our atrocities. The other day Tran Quoc Buu, the head of the Vietnamese Confederation of Labor who has been visiting our country, gave me a good rundown on the Viet Cong and North Vietnamese technique of "atrocity as strategy." He reminded me that this technique had an ancient lineage in Communist practice in the Orient, and, indeed, in eastern Europe. His stories of the Hue massacre were more sickening than anything we have been reading about Songmy. But Hue need not have surprised anybody.

It would not have surprised the late Dr. Thomas Dooley. Does anyone remember his horrifying accounts of "Communist reeducation" as it was practiced by the Viet Minh, the Communist organization in Indochina that gave birth to the Viet Cong? Just to counter the Communist hypocrisy in accusing Americans of "genocide," it might be useful — even at the risk of gagging — to recall Dr. Dooley's description of a Viet Minh "trial" of seven children for treason in a courtyard in the Vietnamese village of Halduong.

The Viet Minh had accused the children of the crime of "conspiracy" because they had listened to a religious teacher the catechism. As a punishment for the crime, the children were to be deprived of their hearing. Dr. Dooley told of two Viet Minh guards going up to each child. One of the guards "firmly grasped the head between his hands. The other then rammed a wooden chopped chopstick into each ear. He jammed it in with all his force. The stick split the ear canal wide and tore the ear drum. The shrieking of the children was heard all over the village."

As for the children's religious teacher, he had to be deprived of his power of speech. Said Dr. Dooley, "one soldier held his head while another grasped the victim's tongue with a crude pair of pliers and pulled it far out. A third guard cut off the tip of the teacher's tongue with his bayonet . . . Neither the teacher nor any of the pupils died."

It fell to Dr. Dooley's lot to treat the teacher and the children after they had escaped through the Bamboo Curtain to his hospital. He saved the children by penicillin injections, but this couldn't restore their hearing.

John Ashbrook, the Republican Congressman from Ohio, and John Rarick, Democrat of Louisiana, have systematically inserted accounts of Communist terror tactics in South Vietnam into the Congressional Record. Who has bothered to read them? Certainly not our Leftist critics who have been making headlines with their protests about "genocide" at Songmy. It wasn't too long ago that an editor of National Review asked the Pentagon for photos of Viet Cong atrocities. A Pentagon official said, "You're the first people who ever asked for these."

I'm not trying to make excuses for Songmy. We shouldn't condone going over to the enemy's practices, even in instances when the heat of battle causes officers to do things they would never think of doing if they had time to deliberate. But what amazes me is the forbearance of people like labor leader Tran Quoc Buu. He is opposed to "coalition" with the Viet Cong because he knows that Communists use coalition as the first step to achieving total control. Tran Quoc Buu doesn't want to have his eardrums pierced or his tongue clipped by a bayonet. But he would be willing to consider "co-existence" with the Viet Cong in the effort to bring peace to South Vietnam.

"We've had an 'open arms' policy of welcoming defectors from the Viet Cong and North Vietnam," he said through a translator. "Two hundred thousand have come over to our side. And a million people from North Vietnam came south when Ho Chi Minh took over. We wouldn't necessarily lose by co-existence."

There have been two methods proposed for ending the war with "co-existence." One is the "leopard spot" proposal, which would let the Viet Cong continue to rule in the areas they still retain. The other would be to give them a province just south of the present demilitarized zone and contiguous with North Vietnam. But the Communists haven't been willing to discuss the propositions. They still want the total victory that would be followed by total terror.

State Offers Aid To Lima Parents

LIMA, Ohio (AP)—A group of parents concerned with a black student boycott at South Junior High School have a state offer of aid in setting up a "sensitivity training" program for faculty members.

Five persons representing a group called "concerned parents" received the offer Tuesday in a meeting at Columbus with Robert O. Greer, assistant state superintendent of education for urban affairs.

From 40 to 100 black students have boycotted the school since Nov. 18 and parents have picketed there daily.

Both Dr. Earl McGovern, city school superintendent, and John Wolfe, South Junior High principal, have rejected demands from students and the concerned parents that they resign. McGovern said he would make a detailed examination of some requests presented by the parents group.

Greer said the state could enter into a local matter of a school official's resignation only at the request of a local board of education. He said most matters presented by the group "were strictly locally oriented."

He said the group was "mainly concerned with introducing multi-ethic teaching materials." He said the group indicated there were problems of "subtleties of understanding among various national groups and among teachers and staff seeming to be in need of what they called sensitivity training, especially in racial issues."

Kurfess Studies Political Move

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio House Speaker Charles F. Kurfess R-4 Bowling Green, told newsmen in an interview here Tuesday he is still interested in running for attorney general in the May primary.

Kurfess, saying he had not made up his mind about seeking that office or some other state post, added that the fact that State Treasurer John D. Herbert has announced that he will seek the attorney general nomination hasn't changed his own interest in the post.

Kurfess said he was being urged to run for the attorney general nomination.

Today is Thursday, December 4, the 338th day of 1969. There are 27 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1851, a workers' rebellion broke out in Paris and was suppressed by Louis Napoleon.

On this date:

In 1783, George Washington, quitting as commander in chief, bade farewell to his officers at a tavern in New York.

In 1816, Britain established the Australian colony of Queensland.

In 1875, the New York City Tammany leader known as Boss Tweed — William Marcy Tweed — escaped from prison. He was later recaptured in Spain.

In 1942, during World War II, American bombers hit the Italian mainland for the first time.

In 1943, President Franklin D. Roosevelt held a World War II conference in Cairo with British Prime Minister Winston Churchill and President Ismet Inonu of Turkey.

In 1944, British troops and armed units of the Greek leftist Elas party were fighting in the streets of Athens.

Ten years ago — President Dwight D. Eisenhower arrived in Rome, the first stop on a goodwill tour of 11 countries in Europe, Asia and Africa.

Five years ago — 21 persons were arrested by the FBI in Missouri in connection with the murder of three civil rights workers seven months earlier.

One year ago — Pope Paul VI spoke out against dissenters within the Roman Catholic Church and called for obedience to church rules.

Recent announcements from the White House indicate that pressure will be kept on the economy, the aim being to bring inflation out of prices. Lower profits are in prospects, therefore, and that means little support for stock prices.

Since November 10 the Dow Jones industrial average has dropped from 863 points and now threatens to fall right out of the 800s.

Investors are worried. Evidence abounds that the slowdown is here. But inflation is far from being stopped. Wholesale prices rose strongly in November, meaning more retail price increases in the next few months.

At the very time when workers are becoming less able to afford higher prices, the prices continue going higher. Manufacturers are beginning to shorten work weeks, the threat of layoffs increases—and so do prices.

The help-wanted advertising index, a measure of want-ad volume in 52 daily newspapers, dropped sharply in October from 235 to 227. The National Industrial Conference Board, which maintains the index, comments coldly: "Declines in the index have generally been followed by increases in unemployment."

Mass psychology, perhaps as a result, appears to be changing. Measures of consumer confidence have been dipping lately. A recessionary psychology, in which purchases are delayed, may be setting in now.

It isn't only the threat to jobs or increasing prices that breeds the somber mood. Daily, now, people are reminded by prominent economists that the nation could slip into a recession—and that it might be in one now.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

A FATHER marched his four children up to the ticket booth of a theatre running a big hit picture and asked, "What's the price for the cheapest seats?" "They're all the same," he was told. "Three bucks apiece." "Well, how much for the kids?" he persisted. "No reduction," was the answer. "Three bucks a ticket." "Funny," mused the father. "Airlines only charge half fare for children." "Okay," nodded the ticket seller. "Put the kids on a plane!"

Speaking Of Your Health

By Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

What is the meaning or importance of swelling of the feet?

Mr. G.W., Wisconsin

Dear Mr. W.: The meaning of swelling of the feet and the ankles varies with the age group, the general physical condition and the duration of the condition. In many instances, swelling of the feet may simply be the result of too tight, constricting garters and shoes.

People with varicose veins and those who stand on their feet for long periods of the day may have swelling of the feet and ankles as the day progresses. In many instances the swelling disappears in the morning because the feet are elevated during the night.

Interference with the blood supply, circulatory disturbances, chronic heart and lung conditions and kidney disorders are the more serious reasons for persistent swelling of the feet and ankles.

The importance, therefore, of this swelling is that the basic reason be found to thoroughly explain its presence. Signs and symptoms such as these are simply nature's warning and the body's plea to be recognized.

Do repeated infections of the bladder mean the possibility of a kidney infection?

Mrs. M.L., Michigan

Dear Mrs. L.: Cystitis is the medical term for inflammation or infection of the inner lining of the urinary bladder. It is a frequent condition seen more often in women than in men. Young girls, particularly, are prone, especially before they are taught good hygiene.

Some irritation of the bladder should be suspected when there is more than usual frequency of urination associated with some burning or painful sensation. With cystitis there is an urgent need to urinate which is not completely fulfilled after the bladder seems to be empty. The cause of cystitis is a germ or some type of bacteria which has found its way into the bladder. Repeated attacks of cystitis do not necessarily mean that the kidneys which control the flow of urine through the bladder, must be involved.

It is wise, however, to have the entire urinary tract studied by the many excellent means that are now available. This will insure that the infection will be localized and kept from spreading. Most cases of cystitis are controlled and even cured with antibiotics, sulfa drugs and a diet free from highly seasoned foods and the irritation of alcohol.

Is Parkinson's disease a progressive one or can it be stopped if treated early?

Mr. J.D., Rhode Island

Dear Mr. D.: Unfortunately Parkinson's disease, or paralysis agitans, is considered a progressive physical disease of the nervous system. The rate of progress varies with each individual. Now there is a new group of drugs which seem to be effective in slowing the advance of this disorder. Many exciting experimental drugs are on the horizon, each offering promise for the control and even cure of this distressing illness.

Dependence on a laxative is a curable habit.

Sonic blasts from military jets flying out from and to nearby Edwards Air Force Base daily rattle the windows and shake the walls in the town of Boron, Calif., these days. Though Boron has only a population of 3,500 it's truly a BOOM town!

The report of a town being bothered by the thunder of sonic blasts isn't exactly earth-shaking news. On the other hand — maybe it really is!

Larger cities may have bigger traffic jams but you must admit Boron's one of the noisiest places in the world.

Whether they are proud of it or not — we wouldn't know — but the citizens of Boron have one distinction — they live in a place where you CAN'T hear a pin drop!

Hanoi Is Hypocritical

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN

The stories of the alleged massacre at Songmy leave a lot of us just as "shocked and sick" as they left Secretary of Defense Melvin Laird. But there is some reassurance to be derived from the fact that our side does not practice massacre as policy. Can Hanoi, which has had the hypocritical effrontery to accuse us of "genocide," honestly make the same claim?

A long time ago some of us felt "shocked and sick" over reports of atrocities in Southeast Asia. They weren't our atrocities. The other day Tran Quoc Buu, the head of the Vietnamese Confederation of Labor who has been visiting our country, gave me a good rundown on the Viet Cong and North Vietnamese technique of "atrocity as strategy." He reminded me that this technique had an ancient lineage in Communist practice in the Orient, and, indeed, in eastern Europe. His stories of the Hue massacre were more sickening than anything we have been reading about Songmy. But Hue need not have surprised anybody.

It would not have surprised the late Dr. Thomas Dooley. Does anyone remember his horrifying accounts of "Communist reeducation" as it was practiced by the Viet Minh, the Communist organization in Indochina that gave birth to the Viet Cong? Just to counter the Communist hypocrisy in accusing Americans of "genocide," it might be useful — even at the risk of gagging — to recall Dr. Dooley's description of a Viet Minh "trial" of seven children for treason in a courtyard in the Vietnamese village of Halduong.

The Viet Minh had accused the children of the crime of "conspiracy" because they had listened to a religious teacher the catechism. As a punishment for the crime, the children were to be deprived of their hearing. Dr. Dooley told of two Viet Minh guards going up to each child. One of the guards "firmly grasped the head between his hands. The other then rammed a wooden chopped chopstick into each ear. He jammed it in with all his force. The stick split the ear canal wide and tore the ear drum. The shrieking of the children was heard all over the village."

As for the children's religious teacher, he had to be deprived of his power of speech. Said Dr. Dooley, "one soldier held his head while another grasped the victim's tongue with a crude pair of pliers and pulled it far out. A third guard cut off the tip of the teacher's tongue with his bayonet . . . Neither the teacher nor any of the pupils died."

It fell to Dr. Dooley's lot to treat the teacher and the children after they had escaped through the Bamboo Curtain to his hospital. He saved the children by penicillin injections, but this couldn't restore their hearing.

John Ashbrook, the Republican Congressman from Ohio, and John Rarick, Democrat of Louisiana, have systematically inserted accounts of Communist terror tactics in South Vietnam into the Congressional Record. Who has bothered to read them? Certainly not our Leftist critics who have been making headlines with their protests about "genocide" at Songmy. It wasn't too long ago that an editor of National Review asked the Pentagon for photos of Viet Cong atrocities. A Pentagon official said, "You're the first people who ever asked for these."

I'm not trying to make excuses for Songmy. We shouldn't condone going over to the enemy's practices, even in instances when the heat of battle causes officers to do things they would never think of doing if they had time to deliberate. But what amazes me is the forbearance of people like labor leader Tran Quoc Buu. He is opposed to "coalition" with the Viet Cong because he knows that Communists use coalition as the first step to achieving total control. Tran Quoc Buu doesn't want to have his eardrums pierced or his tongue clipped by a bayonet. But he would be willing to consider "co-existence" with the Viet Cong in the effort to bring peace to South Vietnam.

"We've had an 'open arms' policy of welcoming defectors from the Viet Cong and North Vietnam," he said through a translator. "Two hundred thousand have come over to our side. And a million people from North Vietnam came south when Ho Chi Minh took over. We wouldn't necessarily lose by co-existence."

There have been two methods proposed for ending the war with "co-existence." One is the "leopard spot" proposal, which would let the Viet Cong continue to rule in the areas they still retain. The other would be to give them a province just south of the present demilitarized zone and contiguous with North Vietnam. But the Communists haven't been willing to discuss the propositions. They still want the total victory that would be followed by total terror.

State Offers Aid To Lima Parents

LIMA, Ohio (AP)—A group of parents concerned with a black student boycott at South Junior High School have a state offer of aid in setting up a "sensitivity training" program for faculty members.

Five persons representing a group called "concerned parents" received the offer Tuesday in a meeting at Columbus with Robert O. Greer, assistant state superintendent of education for urban affairs.

From 40 to 100 black students have boycotted the school since Nov. 18 and parents have picketed there daily.

Both Dr. Earl McGovern, city school superintendent, and John Wolfe, South Junior High principal, have rejected demands from students and the concerned parents that they resign. McGovern said he would make a detailed examination of some requests presented by the parents group.

Greer said the state could enter into a local matter of a school official's resignation only at the request of a local board of education. He said most matters presented by the group "were strictly locally oriented."

He said the group was "mainly concerned with introducing multi-ethic teaching materials." He said the group indicated there were problems of "subtleties of understanding among various national groups and among teachers and staff seeming to be in need of what they called sensitivity training, especially in racial issues."

Kurfess Studies Political Move

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio House Speaker Charles F. Kurfess R-4 Bowling Green, told newsmen in an interview here Tuesday he is still interested in running for attorney general in the May primary.

Kurfess, saying he had not made up his mind about seeking that office or some other state post, added that the fact that State Treasurer John D. Herbert has announced that he will seek the attorney general nomination hasn't changed his own interest in the post.

Kurfess said he was being urged to run for the attorney general nomination.

Today In History

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Today is Thursday, December 4, the 338th day of 1969. There are 27 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1851, a workers' rebellion broke out in Paris and was suppressed by Louis Napoleon.

On this date:

In 1783, George Washington, quitting as commander in chief, bade farewell to his officers at a tavern in New York.

In 1816, Britain established the Australian colony of Queensland.

In 1875, the New York City Tammany leader known as Boss Tweed — William Marcy Tweed — escaped from prison. He was later recaptured in Spain.

In 1942, during World War II, American bombers hit the Italian mainland for the first time.

In 1943, President Franklin D. Roosevelt held a World War II conference in Cairo with British Prime Minister Winston Churchill and President Ismet Inonu of Turkey.

In 1944, British troops and armed units of the Greek leftist Elas party were fighting in the streets of Athens.

Ten years ago — President Dwight D. Eisenhower arrived in Rome, the first stop on a goodwill tour of 11 countries in Europe, Asia and Africa.

Five years ago — 21 persons were arrested by the FBI in Missouri in connection with the murder of three civil rights workers seven months earlier.

One year ago — Pope Paul VI spoke out against dissenters within the Roman Catholic Church and called for obedience to church rules.

NEW YORK (AP) — "Jack Benny's New Look" on NBC Wednesday night consisted of Jack Benny wearing a Nehru jacket and turtleneck shirt and talking about "bread" and "being with it."

That hardly seems enough on which to hang an hour special, but there really doesn't need to be an excuse for a Benny show. To a large segment of the television audience, a Benny appearance is a visit from an old and dependable friend.

He did not let them down, and worked over the familiar ground— the tightwad jokes, the long pauses as the laugh built, the violin and then a sketch with Gregory Peck in which Jack got all the laughs. Nancy Sinatra appeared in three numbers and there was a singing group, Gary Puckett and the Union Gap.

Peck, in his initial television appearance as an entertainer, was amusing in a song and-dance routine with Benny and George Burns.

ABC, after studying the expensive wreckage of "The Survivors" has decided not to attempt any salvage operations. Instead, George Hamilton will star in a new series called "Paris 7000," playing an adventurer attached to our embassy in France and assigned "to aid Americans caught in crisis situations."

Originally, ABC planned to keep the title, change the story line and get rid of all the expensive cast members except Hamilton. The new series will start Jan. 22.

"The Survivors" is the most costly disaster of recent television seasons. It is estimated that some $8 million has gone into the making and remaking of the trouble-ridden series. Lana Turner, the show's top star, was reputedly making $25,000 a week.

The show will wind up the loose ends before it leaves. In the final episode on Jan. 12, the no-good husband of the heroine —Miss Turner—will be arrested for murder after trying to kill his wife. Tracy, the wife, and her former lover will be reunited, plan to marry and take their son away. Duncan Carlyle, her brother who is played by Hamilton, will decide to leave the family bank and make a new life somewhere—presumably Paris where he will be called Joe Shannon at the embassy.

The success story of the season is CBS's "Doris Day Show." It has gradually been gaining in popularity until, in the most recent Nielsen ratings, it has landed among the top 10 most popular programs.

Whether its increased popularity is the result of a radically revised format that took Doris out of blue jeans and put her in city clothes, its new position in the schedule after the popular "Mayberry R.F.D.," or a combination of both can be debated.

Logan Elm Board Discusses Various Heating Systems

The Logan Elm Board of Education discussed various aspects of overhead heating and ventilating systems during its regular session this month.

Representatives of Barber-Coleman Co., and S. J. (Bud) Fischer of South Central Power Co. and Ralph Sounik, architect, were present. Case studies of the Lennox Co.'s DMS heating system were also reviewed.

Board approval was granted to Drema Melton, Ohio Education Assn. delegate of Logan Elm Classroom Teachers Assn., to attend the convention in Columbus, Dec. 11, 12 and 13. The date for high school commencement was set for June 1, 1970.

Elementary promotion exercises will be held June 2, 1970. Approval was given to send a board member and superintendent to Atlantic City in February to gather materials and information necessary for the new exchange building. Permission to use the Pickaway gym at a minimal expense was granted to the boys of Saint Joseph basketball team.

A progress report was given on the installation of the new oil furnaces at Saltcreek and Pickaway Schools. Washington Elementary School will be equipped with natural gas furnaces within ten days as Columbia Gas Company has completed work on the underground pipes.

Superintendent John Henn reported to the board on the Battelle Research Project, on the soils investigation and site survey for construction of the new building and the sale of bonds which is scheduled for December 10. Employees' payday will be Dec. 19 and Jan. 23 rather than on the last working Friday of each month.

In other business transacted the request for a beginning girls basketball team was approved.

Visitors attending were Mrs. Jean Mills, classroom teacher representative, Bob Valentine and Gene Patrick representing Pickaway PTO and Nelson Jones and Dow West representing the Booster Club.

Requests from these two organizations for various physical improvement projects were presented and a mutual agreement reached between board and organizations to cooperate in accomplishing the projects.

Board members Arthur Leist, Wesley Graves Jr., Donald Bower, Roger Hobble and Charles Jones, member elect, were all present. Carolyn McCoy, president, presided.

Report Brewster Seriously Ill

NAAS, Ireland (AP) — Daniel B. Brewster, the former U.S. senator from Maryland accused of accepting bribes, is seriously ill in a neurosurgical department of an Irish hospital, his wife said Wednesday.

She said, however, that he has a complete answer to the charge of accepting $24,500 in bribes from a mail order house and is anxious to return to the United States as soon as he recovers.

Mrs. Brewster is the daughter of a former U.S. ambassador to Moscow, William C. Bullitt.

She declined to say in which hospital her husband, a Democrat, is a patient or how long he had been there.

Nixon Pledges Drive On Drugs

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon said Wednesday the drug problem has become "indeed a national problem" that hits the young, the old, the rich and the poor.

Addressing the Governors' Conference on Narcotics and Drugs, he pledged to wage "a campaign of information and education that will reach all the people of the nation."

And he urged the governors, when they return to their capitals, to strike at the problem of drug abuse in their states.

Ohio University Studies Fee Hikes

Indications are that rising costs would boost the next budget to $6 million from the current $3.7 million, Sowle said.

See Site Accord For State Office

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A legislative committee was expected to settle today on an East Broad Street site north of the Statehouse, for a new state office building.

State officials speculated that the Legislative Office Building Committee would recommend property at 30 E. Broad St. now occupied by the Chamber of Commerce Building, which is being razed.

Logan Elm Board Discusses Various Heating Systems

The Logan Elm Board of Education discussed various aspects of overhead heating and ventilating systems during its regular session this month.

Representatives of Barber-Coleman Co., and S. J. (Bud) Fischer of South Central Power Co. and Ralph Sounik, architect, were present. Case studies of the Lennox Co.'s DMS heating system were also reviewed.

Board approval was granted to Drema Melton, Ohio Education Assn. delegate of Logan Elm Classroom Teachers Assn., to attend the convention in Columbus, Dec. 11, 12 and 13. The date for high school commencement was set for June 1, 1970.

Elementary promotion exercises will be held June 2, 1970. Approval was given to send a board member and superintendent to Atlantic City in February to gather materials and information necessary for the new exchange building. Permission to use the Pickaway gym at a minimal expense was granted to the boys of Saint Joseph basketball team.

A progress report was given on the installation of the new oil furnaces at Saltcreek and Pickaway Schools. Washington Elementary School will be equipped with natural gas furnaces within ten days as Columbia Gas Company has completed work on the underground pipes.

Superintendent John Henn reported to the board on the Battelle Research Project, on the soils investigation and site survey for construction of the new building and the sale of bonds which is scheduled for December 10. Employees' payday will be Dec. 19 and Jan. 23 rather than on the last working Friday of each month.

In other business transacted the request for a beginning girls basketball team was approved.

Visitors attending were Mrs. Jean Mills, classroom teacher representative, Bob Valentine and Gene Patrick representing Pickaway PTO and Nelson Jones and Dow West representing the Booster Club.

Requests from these two organizations for various physical improvement projects were presented and a mutual agreement reached between board and organizations to cooperate in accomplishing the projects.

Board members Arthur Leist, Wesley Graves Jr., Donald Bower, Roger Hobble and Charles Jones, member elect, were all present. Carolyn McCoy, president, presided.

Report Brewster Seriously Ill

NAAS, Ireland (AP) — Daniel B. Brewster, the former U.S. senator from Maryland accused of accepting bribes, is seriously ill in a neurosurgical department of an Irish hospital, his wife said Wednesday.

She said, however, that he has a complete answer to the charge of accepting $24,500 in bribes from a mail order house and is anxious to return to the United States as soon as he recovers.

Mrs. Brewster is the daughter of a former U.S. ambassador to Moscow, William C. Bullitt.

She declined to say in which hospital her husband, a Democrat, is a patient or how long he had been there.

Nixon Pledges Drive On Drugs

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon said Wednesday the drug problem has become "indeed a national problem" that hits the young, the old, the rich and the poor.

Addressing the Governors' Conference on Narcotics and Drugs, he pledged to wage "a campaign of information and education that will reach all the people of the nation."

And he urged the governors, when they return to their capitals, to strike at the problem of drug abuse in their states.

Ohio University Studies Fee Hikes

ATHENS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio University trustees might be asked next year to approve a $30 hike in student fees, President Claude Sowle said Wednesday.

Indications are that rising costs would boost the next budget to $6 million from the current $3.7 million, Sowle said.

See Site Accord For State Office

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A legislative committee was expected to settle today on an East Broad Street site north of the Statehouse, for a new state office building.

State officials speculated that the Legislative Office Building Committee would recommend property at 30 E. Broad St. now occupied by the Chamber of Commerce Building, which is being razed.

How The Weather Looks

OHIO WEATHER SUMMARY

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Official Weather Bureau summary for Ohio:

A foot of snow was reported in Geauga County this morning.

The community of Middlefield was buried in spots up to 12 inches while nine inches were reported just south of Burton. Chardon had four to six inches and Richfield in northern Summit County measured nine to 10 inches.

Most areas through Lake and Ashtabula counties showed only one or two inches on the ground.

Temperatures dropped into the teens around Ohio during the night except in the northeast near Lake Erie where readings were in the 20s.

Readings will drop back down to the teens tonight but skies will be mostly sunny Friday with some moderation in temperatures. Readings will be in the 30s north to the 40s south.

—FORECASTS—

OHIO — Snow flurries northeast, fair south and west tonight and colder. Lows in the teens. Fair and not as cold Friday.

NORTHWEST & CENTRAL OHIO — Fair and cold tonight. Lows in the teens. Sunny and a little warmer Friday. Highs in the 30s. Outlook Saturday: Fair and warmer.

SOUTHWEST & SOUTHEAST OHIO— Fair and colder tonight. Lows in the teens. Sunny and a little warmer Friday. Highs in the 30s and low 40s. Outlook Saturday: Fair and warmer.

Volpe Describes Subway System Of The Future

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—Transportation Secretary John Volpe described Wednesday a subway system that he said could help meet the needs of a growing population and expanding economy.

Volpe, addressing the Montgomery-Greene county regional transportation agency, said the possibility of tube transit vehicles in tunnels 500 feet under ground is being explored.

He said the tube vehicles would be propelled by gravity and pneumatic pressure.

"These are not matters of science fiction," Volpe said. "They are travel modes of the future—of the very near future."

Volpe said the United States is faced with the task of doubling its transportation capacity within the next 20 years.

Say Other Workers May Be Carrying Around Moon Dust

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP) — One of the 11 persons ordered into quarantine at the Lunar Receiving Laboratory because they may have been exposed to moon dust says 30 other persons outside of quarantine could have been equally exposed.

Russell Harmon said their exposure could have come the same way as his. Another of the officials in quarantine, Dr. Robin Brett, said the number exposed and free probably was "more like 9 or 10."

Dr. W. W. Kemmerer, a physician in charge of the quarantine, said, however, that a highly conservative approach "on the side of safety" had always been taken and "I do not believe we have compromised the quarantine."

Brett, Harmon and nine others were exposed Monday when they discovered a break in a rubber glove extending into a cabinet containing moon rocks. A health officer ordered the 11 into quarantine.

Harmon said he had no idea how long the glove had been defective, adding that the laboratory where it happened was one of the busiest places in the moon science building.

"The number could be fairly high with people wandering in and out all day," said Harmon.

Harmon said five persons used the glove Monday, but only two—he and Brett—were quarantined.

Quarantine rules call for all persons exposed to moon dust or exposed to persons who have come in contact with the material to go into isolation.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration strictly controls the quarantine in an effort to prevent the spread of any lunar disease that might exist in the moon dust. Most scientists believe that there is no life in the lunar material.

The quarantine, said Brett, is based on "a very, very remote chance of a very, very great danger."

The Apollo 12 astronauts—Charles Conrad Jr., Richard Gordon Jr. and Alan L. Bean—talked with the Apollo 13 and Apollo 14 crews Wednesday.

They were scheduled to meet with flight surgeons today for an hour's briefing.

White House Has Music And Drugs

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House was swinging with jazz and pop music. And there was a plentiful supply of drugs and the tools of the addict.

It was the windup to President Nixon's one-day governor's conference on drugs and narcotics Wednesday night.

The drugs were an educational display to show the 41 governors and their wives and children the folly of addiction.

The group clapped, stomped and sang to the music of New Orleans trumpet player Al Hirt and the pop recording group "The 5th Dimension."

Nixon told the governors "our greatest challenge is to provide some sense of idealism, some sense of challenge to our young people so they can be proud of their country."

He said he would propose to the National Governor's Conference in February steps to clean up the nation's air and water and improve its environment.

Hirt told reporters that performing artists should preach against the use of marijuana.

"It never appealed to me," he said. And, he added, if anyone in his band ever used it, "he'd be looking for a new job."

The musicians were surprised at the reception to their performance.

"I was expecting stuffed shirts," said bass player Ron Brown. "I see the White House really swings."

How The Weather Looks

OHIO WEATHER SUMMARY

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Official Weather Bureau summary for Ohio:

A foot of snow was reported in Geauga County this morning.

The community of Middlefield was buried in spots up to 12 inches while nine inches were reported just south of Burton. Chardon had four to six inches and Richfield in northern Summit County measured nine to 10 inches.

Most areas through Lake and Ashtabula counties showed only one or two inches on the ground.

Temperatures dropped into the teens around Ohio during the night except in the northeast near Lake Erie where readings were in the 20s.

Readings will drop back down to the teens tonight but skies will be mostly sunny Friday with some moderation in temperatures. Readings will be in the 30s north to the 40s south.

—FORECASTS—

OHIO — Snow flurries northeast, fair south and west tonight and colder. Lows in the teens. Fair and not as cold Friday.

NORTHWEST & CENTRAL OHIO — Fair and cold tonight. Lows in the teens. Sunny and a little warmer Friday. Highs in the 30s. Outlook Saturday: Fair and warmer.

SOUTHWEST & SOUTHEAST OHIO— Fair and colder tonight. Lows in the teens. Sunny and a little warmer Friday. Highs in the 30s and low 40s. Outlook Saturday: Fair and warmer.

A carillon consists of not more than 72 bells and not fewer than 23.

Volpe Describes Subway System Of The Future

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—Transportation Secretary John Volpe described Wednesday a subway system that he said could help meet the needs of a growing population and expanding economy.

Volpe, addressing the Montgomery-Greene county regional transportation agency, said the possibility of tube transit vehicles in tunnels 500 feet under ground is being explored.

He said the tube vehicles would be propelled by gravity and pneumatic pressure.

"These are not matters of science fiction," Volpe said. "They are travel modes of the future—of the very near future."

Volpe said the United States is faced with the task of doubling its transportation capacity within the next 20 years.

Say Other Workers May Be Carrying Around Moon Dust

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP) — One of the 11 persons ordered into quarantine at the Lunar Receiving Laboratory because they may have been exposed to moon dust says 30 other persons outside of quarantine could have been equally exposed.

Russell Harmon said their exposure could have come the same way as his. Another of the officials in quarantine, Dr. Robin Brett, said the number exposed and free probably was "more like 9 or 10."

Dr. W. W. Kemmerer, a physician in charge of the quarantine, said, however, that a highly conservative approach "on the side of safety" had always been taken and "I do not believe we have compromised the quarantine."

Brett, Harmon and nine others were exposed Monday when they discovered a break in a rubber glove extending into a cabinet containing moon rocks. A health officer ordered the 11 into quarantine.

Harmon said he had no idea how long the glove had been defective, adding that the laboratory where it happened was one of the busiest places in the moon science building.

"The number could be fairly high with people wandering in and out all day," said Harmon.

Harmon said five persons used the glove Monday, but only two—he and Brett—were quarantined.

Quarantine rules call for all persons exposed to moon dust or exposed to persons who have come in contact with the material to go into isolation.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration strictly controls the quarantine in an effort to prevent the spread of any lunar disease that might exist in the moon dust. Most scientists believe that there is no life in the lunar material.

The quarantine, said Brett, is based on "a very, very remote chance of a very, very great danger."

The Apollo 12 astronauts—Charles Conrad Jr., Richard Gordon Jr. and Alan L. Bean—talked with the Apollo 13 and Apollo 14 crews Wednesday.

They were scheduled to meet with flight surgeons today for an hour's briefing.

White House Has Music And Drugs

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House was swinging with jazz and pop music. And there was a plentiful supply of drugs and the tools of the addict.

It was the windup to President Nixon's one-day governor's conference on drugs and narcotics Wednesday night.

The drugs were an educational display to show the 41 governors and their wives and children the folly of addiction.

The group clapped, stomped and sang to the music of New Orleans trumpet player Al Hirt and the pop recording group "The 5th Dimension."

Nixon told the governors "our greatest challenge is to provide some sense of idealism, some sense of challenge to our young people so they can be proud of their country."

He said he would propose to the National Governor's Conference in February steps to clean up the nation's air and water and improve its environment.

Hirt told reporters that performing artists should preach against the use of marijuana.

"It never appealed to me," he said. And, he added, if anyone in his band ever used it, "he'd be looking for a new job."

The musicians were surprised at the reception to their performance.

"I was expecting stuffed shirts," said bass player Ron Brown. "I see the White House really swings."

Santa and the DUMBBELL

By Lucrece Beale

. . . . By Lucrece Beale . . . .

Synopsis: Booby Bobby goes shopping to buy a friend but finds there is no such thing as a Friend Store. He decides to write to Santa asking for a friend for Christmas.

CHAPTER THREE
LETTER TO SANTA

THAT NIGHT Booby Bobby shut himself in his room to write to Santa Claus.

It was a very short letter— only one sentence— but he used 23 sheets of paper before he was satisfied with spelling and printing and neatness.

He put the letter in an envelope and ran downstairs to mail it. When he went into the living room he found his parents sitting with guests. There was a huge log fire burning in the fireplace.

Booby Bobby stood and stared worriedly at the fire.

"Why are you standing there like a dummy?" asked his father.

"I wanted to mail a letter," mumbled Booby Bobby.

"Then go mail it."

"It has to be mailed in the fireplace," said Booby Bobby unhappily.

"In the fireplace!" cried his father. "Oh, what would you do with a balmy boy like this?"

The guests tittered. Booby Bobby knew they were thinking, "What a scatterbrain." He couldn't tell them it was a letter to Santa Claus. He knew some grownups did not believe in Santa and they would have thought him a dumb bunny for sure if he tried to explain.

He went back to his room and tried to think where else a person could mail a letter to Santa. There was a hot air register in the wall and he decided that might do. He placed the letter against the register and sealed it there with wide strips of tape. Then he jumped into bed. In two seconds he was asleep.

In the middle of the night there was a swooshing and whirring at the hot air register. Booby Bobby's eyes opened. Santa had come for his letter!

He lay quivering under the covers and listened to the coughing, moaning, sobbing in the walls. He could not imagine why Santa should make such sounds. Suddenly it came to him: 'The letter is taped too tight. He can't get it off!"

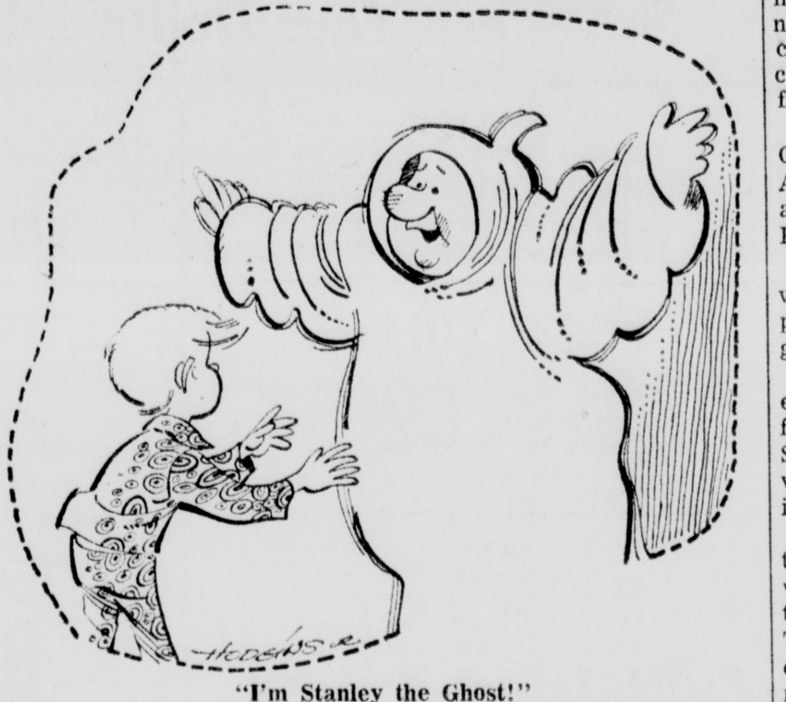
He tiptoed to the register and carefully loosened the tape. There was a final mighty whoosh and the letter flew across the room. A white phantom burst from the register, swept over the head of the astonished boy and threw itself on the bed.

"W-who are you?" whispered Booby Bobby.

"My name is Stanley. I am a Ghost as you can plainly see," said the apparition. "I very nearly suffocated when you blocked the register. Moreover, closed places frighten me dredfully. All in all, I have had a perfectly miserable night, thanks to you."

"I am sorry," said Booby Bobby meekly. "I was mailing a letter."

"Well," said the Ghost. "Considering the state of the mail these days it is very risky to mail a letter. It is wiser by far to make your delivery in person."



"I'm Stanley the Ghost!"

"But this letter is to Santa Claus!"

"All the more reason to take an important letter like that yourself." The Ghost stood up and straightened the sheets over his head. "What are you writing to Santa Claus?"

"Everyone thinks I am a dunce," said Booby Bobby. "No one wants to play with me. I'm asking Santa for a friend for Christmas."

"Not a bad idea," said the Ghost approvingly. "I think I'll go with you."

"Do you want a friend, too?" asked Booby Bobby in surprise.

"Not exactly," said Stanley. "I want a better place to haunt."

STAR GRANGE

Star Grange met in regular session Tuesday evening in the Monroe School auditorium with Carroll Reid, master pro tem presiding over the business session.

A contribution was made to the Health program for Christmas seals. Mrs. Helen Hammel received a certificate for ten years of faithful service as secretary of Star Grange.

Mrs. Herman Porter chairman of Community Service in the Grange reported that the Grange sign had been newly painted and erected. Harold Furniss was reported to be in Grant Hospital for surgery. Mrs. Paul Dawson announced that the pecans will be for sale soon and urged patrons to purchase them. It was announced that the annual Inspection will be held on Feb. 28 and all dues should be in the hands of the secretary before that time.

Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey Bumgarner were guests for the evening and Mrs. Bumgarner, Pickaway county delegate to the State Grange convention gave a very interesting report of the convention. The program under the direction of Miss Laura Long, lecturer, was "Life Is What You Make It." and will be presented Sunday afternoon at the Program Contest at the 4-H and Grange building at 2 p.m.

The next regular meeting will feature our annual Christmas party and gift exchange with a carry-in supper at 7 p.m. with turkey furnished by the grange and prepared by the Home Economics Committee. All members are urged to attend as this will be the only meeting during the month of December.

At the close of the meeting lovely refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Morgan and their committee.

House Group OKs Social Security Hike

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Ways and Means Committee voted unanimously Wednesday to recommend a 15 per cent across - the - board increase in Social Security benefits effective Jan. 1.

Announcing the decision, Chairman Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., said "I hope we will be able to pass the bill through the House in the next few days."

He left open the question whether the Senate could complete action before Congress goes home for Christmas.

Mills said that while the higher payments would be effective from the beginning of next year, Social Security beneficiaries would not actually receive the increased sums until April 1.

The Social Security Administration, he said, advised that it would take this long to revise the check issuing machinery. The check for March, received early in April, would reflect one month's increase and a separate check would be issued at the same time to cover the retroactive increase.

The committee-approved proposal means that the average payment under social security, now in the neighborhood of $100, would go up to $115.

Mills said the committee will defer action until next year on President Nixon's proposals for revising the welfare system.

Lapin Fired; Calls Move 'Political'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Raymond H. Lapin says he was fired by President Nixon as head of the Federal National Mortgage Association in order to open a lucrative job for an administration supporter.

Nixon fired Lapin Tuesday as head of the unique mortgage-buying agency—a neither-public-nor-private organization Lapin thought should be more private and the administration, particularly Housing Secretary George Romney, thought should be more attuned to government.

Lapin, vowing that "I intend to fight," made clear he had no intention of fading quietly away.

Fannie Mae, as the FNMA is usually known, is charged primarily with buying FHA- and VA-insured home mortgages from lenders, thus putting more money into the mortgage market.

The supply—running at an annual rate of about $10 billion this year—has been credited with keeping the 1969 housing market afloat during the current credit crunch.

Nixon's letter of dismissal said simply that "you are hereby removed for good cause."

Lapin's view is different. He sees it, he said, as an effort to open the job—which would carry an $85,000 yearly salary—for a Nixon appointee.

Taft, Rhodes Don't Agree On Procedure For Debates

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Robert Taft Jr., and Gov. James A. Rhodes still haven't agreed on a forum for debates in their Republican primary ba ie for Ohio's Senate seat.

Taft accepted Wednesday a television group's proposal for locally televised confrontations in Cincinnati and Cleveland.

But Rhodes said he thought any television or radio broadcast of the debates should be carried statewide rather than confined to one or two regions.

Scripps - Howard Television proposed two debates over Cincinnati's WCPO and one over Cleveland's WEWS.

Al Schottelkote, general manager of the firm's news division, suggested that the candidates answer telephoned questions from viewers during the Cincinnati appearances Feb. 25 and April 7.

He said the format for the Cleveland appearance March 13 would consist of questions from a panel of three newsmen.

Rhodes, here for a White House conference, said he wants to sit down with Taft representatives and work out a format "for a true debate."

He said there should be agreed subjects for an in-depth, frank and open discussion. "We believe a face-to-face debate on each major issue is what will best serve the interest of the people of Ohio," Rhodes added.

Taft, in accepting the television offer, said it provided a unique opportunity for discussion of the country's domestic and foreign problems.

He said the format "offers an exciting opportunity for a full, candid and honest discussion of the many issues facing Ohio and the nation."

State Loses Land Access Suit

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Supreme Court Wednesday ruled the state must compensate property owners for access rights when portions of land abutting a highway are appropriated.

The court upheld the Stark County Common Pleas Court verdict that awarded $14,500 to Frank E. Diver and $18,500 to Betty Dunger, both of Alliance. Portions of their land were appropriated for improvements of U.S. 62.

The court said when the director of highways apropriates land he must consider the land owner as having a right to ingress and egress " for which he must be compensated."

Senate Shelves Fulbright Bid To Probe Viet Impact

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Foreign Relations Committee has quietly shelved Sen. J. W. Fulbright's bid for an inquiry into the impact of the Vietnam war on the mood and morality of America.

Fulbright, the Arkansas Democrat who heads the committee, said his idea was motivated by the alleged massacre of South Vietnamese civilians by U.S. soldiers.

Fulbright said he did not propose an inquiry into the alleged slayings at My Lai itself. Instead, he said he wanted a hearing soon on the significance of the incident: "What is happening to us as a result of the war?"

A committee majority indicated opposition to such hearings now. Fulbright said they may be proposed again after Congress reconvenes in January.

Sen. George D. Aiken, the senior Republican member, said the proposal was an effort to see what ails the world. "I told him we ought to call some Washington taxicab drivers in and they could tell us what was wrong with the world," Aiken said. "He didn't laugh."

Sen. Daniel K. Inouye, D-Hawaii, called the My Lai incident a national disgrace, and said if there is a way out "it is to be found only through the prompt, complete and public investigation of what has occurred, the proper punishment of those responsible, and through every effort to determine why My Lai happened."

In a Senate speech Tuesday, Inouye, who lost his right arm in World War II combat, asked whether the nation can condemn the men accused of the My Lai killings while justifying "a policy of indiscriminate bombing and artillery attacks on inhabited villages and hamlets."

He also criticized U.S. military training, which he said permits references to the Vietnamese as "gooks, dinks, or slopes."

"I think you can have war without shooting down women and children," said Sen. Ralph Yarborough, D-Tex. "These are war crimes and are against civilized law."

But Aiken said "I expect this kind of thing happens in every war."

LIONS HOST DISTRICT GOVERNOR — Lyle S. Benham, left, district governor of district 13J Lions International of South Central Ohio, highlighted the Tuesday evening meeting of Circleville Lions Club with a talk on his recent trip to the International Convention in Tokyo, Japan. He also spoke of the duties of International President W. R. Bryan, who is a native of Ohio. Benham, a resident of Dayton affiliated with Bellbrook Lions Club, urged all clubs to increase their membership in the coming year. Pictured with the district governor is Fred Howell, seated, president of the local club.

Medic Says Doctors Not Qualified As Sex Advisers

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — It is a myth that the average physician is well trained to deal with his patients' sexual problems, a Texas psychologist says.

Dr. James Leslie McCary, professor of psychology at the University of Houston, spoke Wednesday about sex myths and fallacies to doctors attending the American Medical Association's clinical convention.

"It is a sad and unfortunate truth that except for adequate knowledge of reproductive processes, physicians as a group are grievously ignorant and actually rather prudish in matters of sexuality," he said.

Another fallacy, he said, is that sex desire and ability decrease markedly after age 40 to 50.

Sexual intercourse among the married elderly "occurs considerably more frequently than is commonly realized," he said.

He said a statistical study showed: "Seven out of 10 healthy married couples who are 60 years of age or older are sexually active, and the consistent clinical observation is that of both men and women, the ones with the strongest sex drive during youth retain the greatest sex drive and virility in old age."

Another myth, Dr. McCary said, is that persons who commit sex crimes are highly dangerous, oversexed and usually get involved in progressively more serious crimes.

The sex offender "is rarely involved in nonsexual crimes," he said, adding that "only a small percentage use force or duress on their victims."

"Homicide seldom occurs in conjunction with sexual offenses," he said. "When homicide does occur in sex crimes, the offender is usually insane as well as sexually deviated."

The typical sex offender is undersexed rather than oversexed, Dr. McCary said, and is likely to be afraid of normal sexual contact.

Man Is Acquitted

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A criminal court jury Wednesday acquitted Donald Eugene Walls, 43, of first-degree murder in the May 5 hammer slaying of Theodore Williams, 61, a North Side carryout operator.

Laurelville Schools Ask Levy Support

Laurelville School district voters will go to the polls Dec. 9, to vote in a special election for the renewal of a 2.6 school levy.

Glen A. Christy, local superintendent, emphasizes the word 'renewal' to voters which means no increase in taxes.

Only through passage of the 2.6 renewal levy can the school receive state funds. The district fell below the 17.50 mills necessary to receive state funds when it failed to pass the renewal levy in November. The state provides approximately $215,000 to the district. This constitutes 60 per cent of the general fund receipts.

According to the superintendent, the school year cannot be completed without state money. Should the levy fail Dec. 9, current operating funds would be exhausted by January 31. If the district votes the required millage at a later date in 1970, the district cannot qualify for state funds as a levy voted in 1970 is not collectable until 1971.. Therefore the Tuesday special election and levy passage is vitally important to the Laurelville district for it is the last opportunity within the Ohio law to vote upon a school issue before the end of the calendar year.

Through state advisement and facts from the office of Hocking County School Superintendent James Frey, the financial situation of the Laurelville school district is presented to voters by school superintendent Glen A. Christy as accurate. He states that "the students of our district deserve a whole year's education. A 'yes' vote on Dec. 9 will insure it."

Should the renewal levy fail to pass, students would be assigned elsewhere in order to complete the school year.

Korean Is Guest Speaker

CHAN YUNG KIM

The Northridge Church of Christ, Northridge Road, has extended an invitation to Chan Yung Kim from Korea to be guest speaker at its services Dec. 6 and 7.

On Saturday evening, Dec. 6 at 6 p.m. a carry-in fellowship dinner will be held by members and friends of the congregation. Mr. Kim will relate the story of his life beginning 7:30 p.m.

On Sunday at the 10:30 a.m. worship service Mr. Kim will present the sermon and at the 7:30 p.m. service will tell of his work as a missionary in his native country.

Mr. Kim received his AB degree from Johnson Bible College, Knoxville, Tenn. He received his master of religious education degree from Cincinnati Bible Seminary. He has studied at the University of Cincinnati as well as the University of Louisville where he will complete his studies in May, 1970.

He will return to his work in Korea in late September, accompanied by his wife and one year old son.

Gerald Stemm, minister of the local church, urges all members and friends to attend the dinner as well as the services.

I-275 Section Set For Tuesday Opening

CINCINNATI (AP) — Clermont County residents will have easier access to the Hamilton County expressway system beginning Tuesday when a 2.7 mile section of Interstate 275 east of here is opened to the public.

The State Highway Department announced Wednesday the section, costing $4,802,197, had been completed.

Experts Dispute Charges Viet Economy Undermined

SAIGON (AP) — American experts reject claims by U.S. senators that Saigon's flourishing currency black market is undermining South Vietnam's economy.

"A black market doesn't destroy an economy," one expert said today. "What destroys an economy is runaway inflation and the unavailability of necessary goods. We don't have that, so the economy continues to function."

Illegal trading in money, he added, "has been there all along, and we've adapted to it. It's not as bad for the economy as the Senate investigators believe."

Witnesses testified before a Senate investigations subcommittee Nov. 15-21 that Moslem money changers from south India are running a multimillion dollar international racket from Saigon.

The committee chairman, Sen. Abraham Ribicoff, D-Conn., charged that the illegal transactions seriously hindered efforts to stabilize South Vietnam's economy. Sen. Charles H. Percy, R-Ill., called the money hangers "profiteers of tragedy (who) undermine a war-ravaged country."

The day after the Senate hearings concluded, the South Vietnamese government started a crackdown on the currency market that netted less than $10,000 during the first week. A source familiar with the market described this as "peanuts." No arrests have been made.

The South Vietnamese piaster is not convertible legally to foreign currencies and has no official value outside the country. Piasters are available in some foreign countries at much less than the official rate in Saigon. They cannot be imported legally into the country, but some do get through.

LIONS HOST DISTRICT GOVERNOR — Lyle S. Benham, left, district governor of district 13J Lions International of South Central Ohio, highlighted the Tuesday evening meeting of Circleville Lions Club with a talk on his recent trip to the International Convention in Tokyo, Japan. He also spoke of the duties of International President W. R. Bryan, who is a native of Ohio. Benham, a resident of Dayton affiliated with Bellbrook Lions Club, urged all clubs to increase their membership in the coming year. Medic Says Doctors Not Qualified As Sex Advisers

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — It is a myth that the average physician is well trained to deal with his patients' sexual problems, a Texas psychologist says.

Dr. James Leslie McCary, professor of psychology at the University of Houston, spoke Wednesday about sex myths and fallacies to doctors attending the American Medical Association's clinical convention.

"It is a sad and unfortunate truth that except for adequate knowledge of reproductive processes, physicians as a group are grievously ignorant and actually rather prudish in matters of sexuality," he said.

Another fallacy, he said, is that sex desire and ability decrease markedly after age 40 to 50.

Sexual intercourse among the married elderly "occurs considerably more frequently than is commonly realized," he said.

He said a statistical study showed: "Seven out of 10 healthy married couples who are 60 years of age or older are sexually active, and the consistent clinical observation is that of both men and women, the ones with the strongest sex drive during youth retain the greatest sex drive and virility in old age."

Another myth, Dr. McCary said, is that persons who commit sex crimes are highly dangerous, oversexed and usually get involved in progressively more serious crimes.

The sex offender "is rarely involved in nonsexual crimes," he said, adding that "only a small percentage use force or duress on their victims."

"Homicide seldom occurs in conjunction with sexual offenses," he said. "When homicide does occur in sex crimes, the offender is usually insane as well as sexually deviated."

The typical sex offender is undersexed rather than oversexed, Dr. McCary said, and is likely to be afraid of normal sexual contact.

Laurelville Schools Ask Levy Support

Laurelville School district voters will go to the polls Dec. 9, to vote in a special election for the renewal of a 2.6 school levy.

Glen A. Christy, local superintendent, emphasizes the word 'renewal' to voters which means no increase in taxes.

Only through passage of the 2.6 renewal levy can the school receive state funds. The district fell below the 17.50 mills necessary to receive state funds when it failed to pass the renewal levy in November. The state provides approximately $215,000 to the district. This constitutes 60 per cent of the general fund receipts.

According to the superintendent, the school year cannot be completed without state money. Should the levy fail Dec. 9, current operating funds would be exhausted by January 31. If the district votes the required millage at a later date in 1970, the district cannot qualify for state funds as a levy voted in 1970 is not collectable until 1971.. Therefore the Tuesday special election and levy passage is vitally important to the Laurelville district for it is the last opportunity within the Ohio law to vote upon a school issue before the end of the calendar year.

Through state advisement and facts from the office of Hocking County School Superintendent James Frey, the financial situation of the Laurelville school district is presented to voters by school superintendent Glen A. The Children's Corner

EDITOR'S NOTE: The Pickaway County Public Library has a section devoted to books for children. Volumes recently added to the Children's Library are reviewed here.

Books are the best gifts of all. Books are not broken by New Year's Day. Books do not need replacement parts. Books are easily wrapped and they make attractive packages. They may be mailed at the book rate.

Listed below are suggestions for gift books for children on your Christmas list. Some of them have previously been reviewed here; a few will be given more space in future columns. If you are unable to find them in your local bookstore, the children's librarian will be glad to furnish the publisher's address.

For the holidays: "Christmas" written and illustrated by Dick Bruna, English verse by Eve Merrian, Doubleday; Grandmothers will love this one. "The Littlest Angel" by Charles Tazewell, illustrated by Sergio Leone, Children's Press; sure to be popular again this year because it is featured on the Hallmark Christmas program.

For the very young: Brian Wildsmith's ABC, Watts; stunning pictures in glowing color.

For very little girls: "Supposings" by Johanna Johnston, Holiday House; fun to read aloud. "In the Flaky, Frosty Morning" by Karla Kuskin, Harper and Row; good read-aloud about a snowman, with attractive drawings to match the rhymes. "My Mother and I" by Aileen Fisher, illustrated by Kazue Mizumura, Crowell; thoughts of a little girl and her warm relationship with her mother.

For very little boys: "Mike Mulligan and his Steam Shovel" by Virginia Burton, Houghton-Mifflin; all-time favorite about advancing technology in the steam shovel business. "Airplanes and Trucks and Fire Engines, Boats and Ships and Building and Wrecking Machines" by George Zaffo, Grosset and Dunlap; mostly pictures, for little boys and big ones.

Read alouds: "Swamp Spring" by Carol and —David Carrik, MacMillan; beautifully illustrated lesson on water conservation. "Sing, Little Mouse" by Aileen Fisher, illustrated by Symeon Shimin, Crowell; family relationships. "Where the Wild Apples Grow" by John Hawkinson, Whitman; lovely watercolors tell the strange tale of the little girl with long, brown hair. "The Giving Tree" by Shel Silverstein, Harper and Row; a cartoon-like tree gives a lesson in the art of unselfish love.

For the early grades: "To Catch a Bird" by Jay Williams, illustrated by Jo Polseno, Crowell-Collier; encouragement for young naturalists to hunt birds with the proper equipment — pen and ink. "Jellybeans for Breakfast" by Miriam Young, pictures by Beverly Komoda, Parents' Magazine Press; fanciful musings of a thoughtful child. "Legend of the Willow Plate" by Tresselt and Cleaver, pictures by Joseph Low, Parents' Magazine Press the true story

For older children: "The Henry Huggins books, by Beverly Cleary, Morrow; voted one of the most popular series by Pickaway County boys and girls. "Riverboat Family" by Elizabeth Wilton, Colonial Press; life in Australia in the 1890's. "Beaver of Weeping Water" by Marian Rumsey, illustrated by Lydea Rosier, Morrow; nature story. "Thirty-one and Six: The Story of Denny McLain" by Robert B. Jackson, Henry Z. Walck.

MOUNTAIN VIEW, Calif. (AP) — Alexander Tonis parked the car in his driveway recently and left the engine running while he went inside for a moment.

The car, with an automatic transmission, shifted itself into reverse, backed across the street and shoved neighbor William Ebeling's car into his dining room.

Then, the vacant car shifted into a forward gear, crossed the street again and crashed into its owner's garage door.

No one was injured, but damage was extensive.

Conference On Hunger Platform To Push Nixon

WASHINGTON (AP) — Whatever it was intended to be the White House conference on hunger is being used by the poor as a platform to push the Nixon administration into war now against hunger and poverty.

Demands for declaration of a national hunger emergency, a guaranteed annual income of $5,500, and free food stamps immediately won shouted approval at a rump session Wednesday night attended by a third of the conference's 3,000 delegates.

That session and lobbying by poor, Mexican-American, and black caucuses played against a backdrop of seminars considering everything from food labeling to the nature of fatty acids.

More than 500 delegates have turned in their $18.30 a day meal tickets to protest what they say is administration disinterest in free school breakfast and lunch programs which would cost less than a dollar a day per student. A group of priests has started a fast.

A conference panel is recommending a guaranteed income —no figure is suggested—and a conference staff member says the demands of the rump session will be noted in the final report to President Nixon.

The Rev. Ralph Abernathy of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference urged an all-out federal effort to abolish hunger by Thanksgiving 1970. He knows hunger, Abernathy said, adding: "I live with people who cannot afford cottage cheese to reduce."

The conference is developing and voting on hundreds of recommendations intended to develop a national food policy.

Some of the recommendations:

—Protein enrichment of bread, pasta, rice, citrus drinks, processed meat products, and snack foods.

—A single federal regulatory agency, a Food Administration, to assure uniform labeling, sanitation, and inspection procedures.

—Improved quality of meat production and programs to "protect our crops from pests and our population from pesticides."

Cheviot Is Sued By Property Owner

CINCINNATI (AP) — The operation of a garbage landfill and a police firing range in western Hamilton County by the suburban city of Cheviot caused depreciation of $70,000 to the adjoining property of Mary E. Wantland, she said in a suit filed in Common Pleas Court Wednesday.

Mrs. Wantland also asked that the operations be closed down.

Careless Smoking Destroys Tavern

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Careless smoking has been blamed for the $100,000 fire early Sunday that destroyed the Elzona Tavern in Westlake.

Edmund Geiger, fire chief in the suburb, said the fire in the dining area probably was touched off by a smouldering cigaret or match.

Unusual Assault Brings Conviction Of Parents

CINCINNATI (AP) — A man and his wife, who admitted dragging their married, 23-year-old son from a building by his beard, have been reluctantly convicted of assault and battery.

Judge Rupert Doan of the Hamilton County Municipal Court convicted Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Koenig of suburban Cheviot Tuesay and fined them but remitted the costs.

The Koenigs said that their daughter-in-law called them and said that Charles Koenig was in a hippie-populated section here "smoking pot with his girlfriend."

Doan said that "under the circumstances I probably would have done the same thing" as the Koenigs.

A conference panel is recommending a guaranteed income —no figure is suggested—and a conference staff member says the demands of the rump session will be noted in the final report to President Nixon.

The Rev. Ralph Abernathy of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference urged an all-out federal effort to abolish hunger by Thanksgiving 1970. He knows hunger, Abernathy said, adding: "I live with people who cannot afford cottage cheese to reduce."

The conference is developing and voting on hundreds of recommendations intended to develop a national food policy.

Some of the recommendations:

—Protein enrichment of bread, pasta, rice, citrus drinks, processed meat products, and snack foods.

—A single federal regulatory agency, a Food Administration, to assure uniform labeling, sanitation, and inspection procedures.

—Improved quality of meat production and programs to "protect our crops from pests and our population from pesticides."

Cheviot Is Sued By Property Owner

CINCINNATI (AP) — The operation of a garbage landfill and a police firing range in western Hamilton County by the suburban city of Cheviot caused depreciation of $70,000 to the adjoining property of Mary E. Wantland, she said in a suit filed in Common Pleas Court Wednesday.

Mrs. Wantland also asked that the operations be closed down.

Careless Smoking Destroys Tavern

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Careless smoking has been blamed for the $100,000 fire early Sunday that destroyed the Elzona Tavern in Westlake.

Edmund Geiger, fire chief in the suburb, said the fire in the dining area probably was touched off by a smouldering cigaret or match.

Unusual Assault Brings Conviction Of Parents

CINCINNATI (AP) — A man and his wife, who admitted dragging their married, 23-year-old son from a building by his beard, have been reluctantly convicted of assault and battery.

Judge Rupert Doan of the Hamilton County Municipal Court convicted Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Koenig of suburban Cheviot Tuesay and fined them but remitted the costs.

The Koenigs said that their daughter-in-law called them and said that Charles Koenig was in a hippie-populated section here "smoking pot with his girlfriend."

Doan said that "under the circumstances I probably would have done the same thing" as the Koenigs.

Address Letters In Poor Fashion

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Atty. Gen. Louis J. Lefkowitz sent this letter to each of the state's 150 assemblymen:

"It has come to my attention that the consumer action bulletin from my office was sent to you in an envelope in which you were not addressed with your full title, but in an abbreviated form.

"It was careless of my office to have addressed you in this fashion and I'm sorry it happened."

The bulletin's address used the first three letters of the assemblymen's title.

Blood Donor Guilty Of Vagrancy

VIENNA (AP) — A man who told a magistrate he earned his living as a blood-donor was sentenced to eight days in jail because of "vagrancy."

The judge ruled the one-weekly donorship could not be considered a proper job and the money he received was not enough for his keep.

Blood donors receive 250 Schillings (10 dollars) each time.

Northwest, Northeast Hit By Cold

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Wintry weather plagued motorists in the Pacific Northwest and the Northeast today and a wave of arctic cold numbed the Midwest and the Great Lakes.

A broad band of snow deepened from the Great Lakes to the Appalachians and New England. Travelers warnings were in effect from the upper Ohio Valley to New England. Gale warnings flew over all the Great Lakes. Showers along the north Pacific Coast turned to snow or freezing drizzle inland as far as the Cascades as a new cold front rolled across the Northwest.

Locally heavy snow fell in the southern Rockies. Up to 10 inches was forecast in some mountain areas of New Mexico. Rain splashed over lowland areas of the Southwest.

Zero cold spilled across the northeastern Plains and into the Great Lakes region. Local cold wave conditions were indicated in portions of Minnesota.

Freezing weather again enveloped most of the Eastern seaboard as far south as Georgia.

Temperatures before dawn ranged from zero at International Falls, Minn., to 68 at Santa Barbara, Calif., and Key West, Fla.

Boys Misbehave

EAST LONDON, South Africa (AP) — Seven members of Selborne College rugby team were "asked to leave" school after they were seen drinking beer in a bar in nearby Port Elizabeth. School authorities claimed the boys, two of whom are to write their final examinations this year, were not expelled. Angry parents agreed the boys should be punished but said forcing them to leave the school was not justified.

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

The Problems Of Interracial Dating

DEAR ABBY: When young people date one of a different race (and I mean "color") they tend to develop stronger relationships because they are defensive about the raised eyebrows and stares that follow them in public.

A child will say to his parents, "If I marry one of another race, it's MY life and MY business!"

This is not quite true, because the parents will have to bear the stares and raised eyebrows with him.

And if their "great love" miraculously survives the rejection they are sure to meet on both sides, their children will have to pay the price of never fully belonging to one race or the other.

Don't we have the right to speak for our unborn grandchildren who cannot as yet speak for themselves?

I am sure that if the truth were told, most Oriental and Negro parents are as much opposed to these mixed marriages as we Caucasian parents. And where do the "white" kids get the supreme arrogance to think that other races have less pride and are better off diluted by Caucasian blood?

What is wrong with evaluating an individual for his own worth, but not accepting interracial marriage as the answer?

ACCUSED OF PREJUDICE

DEAR ACCUSED: Witness the unconventional appearance adopted by so many of our young people today, and it is obvious that they aren't as disturbed by raised eye-brows and stares as their parents.

I, too, believe that most Oriental and Negro parents would prefer that their children marry within their own races. I also think that many of our fine, liberal young whites go in for interracial marriage in a conscious effort to give more than lip service to lofty ideals of "equality and brotherhood." But many are motivated by the unconscious desire to have that which has been forbidden by their parents. And parents who discourage such marriages are unfairly labeled "bigots."

DEAR ABBY: My husband is in the service and recently went overseas. Before he left he always took me to the shop at the Community P.X. which was a big saving.

Now that he is gone, a friend of mine is all the time offering to drive me to the P.X. so I can do my shopping there. This is a big help as I have two small children and no car. Now I know why she is so anxious to drive me. She gives me her "list" and asks me to buy at the P.X. for her, too. I really didn't want to, but I didn't know how to refuse her without getting her mad at me, so I did her shopping for her a few times and she paid me back. Finally, I started feeling guilty and told her that I couldn't shop for her at the P.X. anymore. I said If I got caught they could take my card away, and even fine me. She laughed and said, "Oh, don't be silly! They could never catch you!"

Abby, what can I do? Buying at the P.X. is a privilege my husband has earned. (Hers has not.) But how can I do my shopping there and still get out of doing hers?

TROUBLED

DEAR TROUBLED: Tell her that you will not shop for her at the P.X. anymore because it's dishonest! Find other transportation there, and if you lose the friendship of this chiseling friend, you haven't lost much.

DEAR ABBY: We have a Tuesday afternoon bridge club, and the same women have been playing together for a number of years. I win my share, but this last year I found that I had been winning less and less. I just happened to check over the scores and I discovered that one of the girls has been padding her score, like putting a "one" in front of a "200" when she added the scores for the day's game.

I am just sick to think that she would do such a thing. What is the best way to solve this problem without embarrassing her?

NO NAME OR TOWN PLEASE

DEAR NO NAME: Tell her privately. Of course she'll be "embarrassed," but the embarrassment will be minimized, which is more consideration than she deserves. deserves.

Space Age Streets Named In Glasgow

GLASGOW (AP) — Three streets in a private housing estate at Airdrie near Glasgow have been given space-age names.

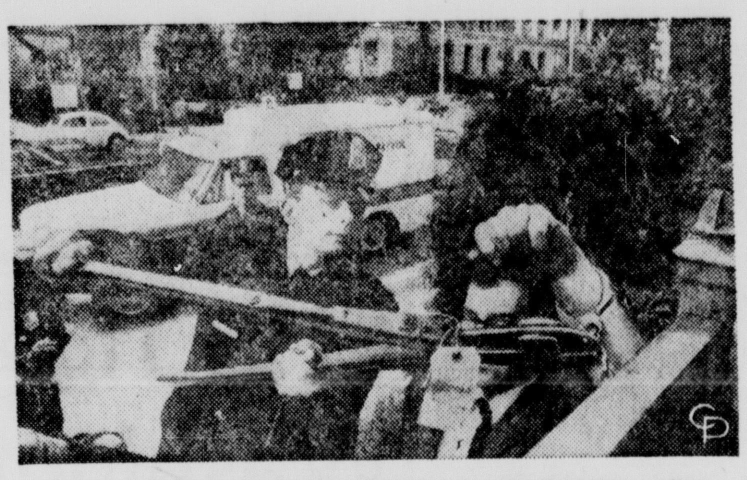
Among names approved by the local council were Apollo Path, Micro Path and Lunar Path.

Man Said Sane; To Face Trial

CINCINNATI (AP) — John Leigh, one of three men charged in the slaying of four women during a savings and loan robbery, has been declared sane by a panel of court - appointed psychiatrists.

Judge Simon Leis of the Hamilton County Common Pleas Court reported the ruling Tuesday on Leigh, 20, who had pleaded innocent by reason of insanity.

He and two other men are charged with four counts each of first-degree murder in the fatal wounding of the women Sept. 24 at the Cabinet-Supreme Savings & Loan Co in suburban Delhi.



CHAIN GANG AT SOVIET EMBASSY—A Washington policeman cuts the chain of one of 18 demonstrators who fastened themselves to the gates of the Soviet Embassy to protest what they called the repression of Jews in Russia. They were hauled away in paddy wagons and charged with demonstrating within 500 feet of an embassy.

Mine Workers Election Nears

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The hard-fought campaign for the presidency of the United Mine Workers has entered its final week, with neither incumbent W.A. "Tony" Boyle nor challenger Joseph A. "Jock" Yablonski showing any signs of running out of steam.

A Boyle aide said Tuesday there was a "good chance" the UMW head would call for a congressional investigation into the Labor Department's release of a memorandum accusing him of misusing union funds.

Boyle has said the Labor Department's move "smacks of political motivation."

New Ice Warning Device Displayed

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP) — A highway ice warning device that reflects a red light when temperatures drop to freezing was displayed by a West German research firm.

The Batelle Institute which developed the device, said it is mounted on roadside guard rails and in headlight reflections shows red when temperatures drop to freezing, yellow when temperatures are slightly warmer and green when there is no chance of ice.

Suits worn by some knights in shining armor weighed 120 pounds, took three years to make, and cost a fortune to buy.

DEAR ABBY: We have a Tuesday afternoon bridge club, and the same women have been playing together for a number of years. I win my share, but this last year I found that I had been winning less and less. I just happened to check over the scores and I discovered that one of the girls has been padding her score, like putting a "one" in front of a "200" when she added the scores for the day's game.

I am just sick to think that she would do such a thing. What is the best way to solve this problem without embarrassing her?

NO NAME OR TOWN PLEASE

DEAR NO NAME: Tell her privately. Of course she'll be "embarrassed," but the embarrassment will be minimized, which is more consideration than she deserves. deserves.

Space Age Streets Named In Glasgow

GLASGOW (AP) — Three streets in a private housing estate at Airdrie near Glasgow have been given space-age names.

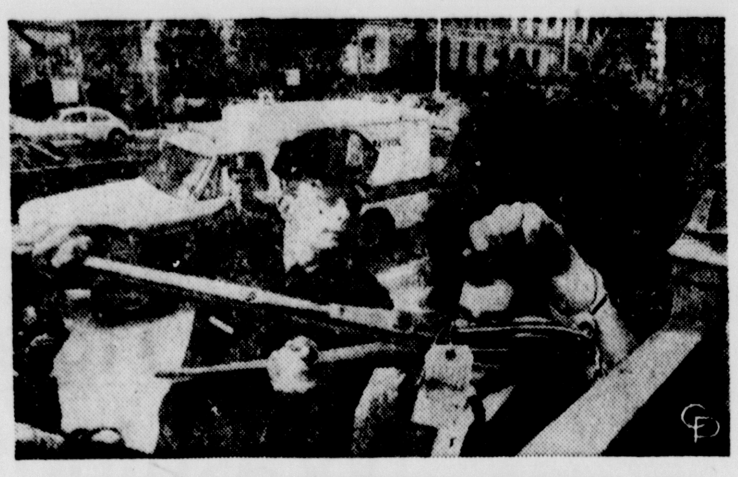
Among names approved by the local council were Apollo Path, Micro Path and Lunar Path.

Man Said Sane; To Face Trial

CINCINNATI (AP) — John Leigh, one of three men charged in the slaying of four women during a savings and loan robbery, has been declared sane by a panel of court - appointed psychiatrists.

Judge Simon Leis of the Hamilton County Common Pleas Court reported the ruling Tuesday on Leigh, 20, who had pleaded innocent by reason of insanity.

He and two other men are charged with four counts each of first-degree murder in the fatal wounding of the women Sept. 24 at the Cabinet-Supreme Savings & Loan Co in suburban Delhi.



CHAIN GANG AT SOVIET EMBASSY—A Washington policeman cuts the chain of one of 18 demonstrators who fastened themselves to the gates of the Soviet Embassy to protest what they called the repression of Jews in Russia. They were hauled away in paddy wagons and charged with demonstrating within 500 feet of an embassy.

Mine Workers Election Nears

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The hard-fought campaign for the presidency of the United Mine Workers has entered its final week, with neither incumbent W.A. "Tony" Boyle nor challenger Joseph A. "Jock" Yablonski showing any signs of running out of steam.

A Boyle aide said Tuesday there was a "good chance" the UMW head would call for a congressional investigation into the Labor Department's release of a memorandum accusing him of misusing union funds.

Boyle has said the Labor Department's move "smacks of political motivation."

New Ice Warning Device Displayed

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP) — A highway ice warning device that reflects a red light when temperatures drop to freezing was displayed by a West German research firm.

The Batelle Institute which developed the device, said it is mounted on roadside guard rails and in headlight reflections shows red when temperatures drop to freezing, yellow when temperatures are slightly warmer and green when there is no chance of ice.

Suits worn by some knights in shining armor weighed 120 pounds, took three years to make, and cost a fortune to buy.

FAST START — Capital University is off to a fast start this year, winning two Ohio Conference basketball games in as many starts. Russ Merrin, a Logan Elm graduate, is a member of the squad and is expected to be a key factor in the Crusaders' offense. Members of the team, kneeling from the left are: Jim Dafler, Steve Longbrake, Ben Craige, Coach Vince Chickerella, Scott Weakley, Marc Trimmer, Mike Lemke. Standing: Merrin, Jim White, Don Kalb, Mike Stumpf, Mike Dreeling, Bob Arnold, Joe Jacobus.

Capital U Sparkles In Cage Loop

By THE ASSOCIATED PRES

Capital University is leaving little doubt in the minds of its Ohio Conference opponents that it will be a basketball team to be reckoned with this season.

The Crusader whipped defending champion Wittenberg 66-53 Wednesday night for its second surprisingly easy league victory this week. Capital downed perenially potent Kenyon 118-96 Monday night.

The triumph Wednesday night was Capital's first over the Tigers since the 1958 - 59 season.

Trailing by one basket, 33-31, at intermission, the Crusaders, led by Bob Arnold with 21 points, shot ahead early in the second half and never were behind again. Wittenberg's Larry Baker shot a game-high 23 points.

In another Ohio Conference game, Heidelberg beat Wooster 114-101, despite a 40-point scoring performance by the Scots' Tom Dinger. Co-captains John Hill and Steve Farnsworth led the Heidelberg attack with 37 and 36 points, respectively.

Elsewhere in Ohio college basketball action, Ashland trimmed Wilberforce 52 - 48, Penn State salvaged a 61-57 victory over Kent State, Youngstown State beat Cleveland State 67-48, Walsh downed Clarion State 85 - 79, Central State edged Thomas Moore 73 - 70, Ohio Northern defeated Bluffton 89-82 and St. Francis got past Steubenville 77-70.

Ashland, The Associated Press' No. 1 ranked small college team last season, pulled out its victory over Wilberforce by a layup by Wayne Fokolowski and a foul shot by Bubba Jones in the final 35 seconds of play.

After blowing a 13-point halftime lead, Penn State utilized near perfection at the foul line, converting 17 of 18 free throws, to defeat Kent State. Kent State shifted from a man-to-man defense to a 1-3-1 zone to close to within two points of the Nittany Lions but couldn't take the lead.

Youngstown went on a second-half scoring splurge to sew up its win over Cleveland State. Will Teague led scorers with 22 points.

Ray Syzltulksi netted 20 points as Walsh won its first game of the season against Clarion State of Pennsylvania.

Sophomore guard Danny Young sank four pressure free throws with 80 second left to play in Central State's come-from-behind victory over Thomas More. Young shared scoring honors with More's Tom Saalfeld at 22 points each.

Sparked by John Mellinger's 27 points and exhibiting a tough one-on-one defense, Ohio Northern wiped out a five-point halftime deficit to down Bluffton.

St. Francis met a tough adversary in Steubenville in a contest that was close until the final few minutes. The visitors' Kevin Porter led scorers with 19 points.

Findlay took an early lead and then held on to claim a Mid - Ohio Conference victory over Malone. Malone's Steve Schroder sank a game-high 27 points, while Findlay's top man was John Johnson with 17.

Pittsburgh Tops Detroit

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Pittsburgh turned the other cheek and was rewarded for its efforts—a share of second place and a four-game unbeaten string.

Now if the Penguins and the other West Division teams in the National Hockey League could figure out a way to stop St. Louis.

Pittsburgh nipped Detroit 2-1 Wednesday night while the West leading Blues romped to a 3-1 victory over Oakland. The St. Louis victory extended its skein to 10 straight over the Seals and an over-all mark this season of 8-0 versus West Division clubs.

The Penguins, meanwhile, lulled Detroit into defeat—playing the entire game without a penalty called against them—and got goals from veteran Dean Prentice and rookie Michel Briers in the first period and held off the Red Wings, who got a middle session goal froom Frank Mahovlich.

In other games, New York and Chicago tied 3-3, Minnesota and Philadelphia beat Los Angeles 7-1.

CHS Tigers Meet Washington In League Battle

The Circleville High School basketball team faces a rugged twin bill this weekend, playing Washington C. H. Friday at Washington and hosting Grandview Saturday.

Washington was tabbed by the South Central Ohio League basketball coaches as the team most likely to win the loop crown this season.

Head coach Gary Shafer has seven returning lettermen from a team that lost only to defending league champ Miami Trace last year in loop action.

Steve Bowers, a third year letterman for the Lions, is their leading scorer this season. He is 6 feet 3 inches tall. The other returning starter is forward Steve Phillips, also 6 feet 3 inches tall.

* * *

OTHER senior lettermen include George Lee, 6-3; Jack Warner, 5-11; Dick Boggs, 6-0; Keith Evans, 5-10; Kim Evans, 5-10.

Up from the Blue Lion reserve unit for varsity action this year are David DeWeese, a junior at 6-3; Lonnie Wilson, a 6-0 junior; junior guard Dan Mahoney, 5-8; junior Jeff Pollock, 5-11; senior John Bath, 6-1; senior John Meriweather, 6-1.

CHS coach John Lawhorn will probably start with Ty Ankrom and Charlie Jackson at forwards, Bryce Brown at center and Randy Halley and Tom Bowers at guards.

Brown, at 6-3, is the tallest of the Tigers, but Circleville's shooting accuracy could offset the height advantage enjoyed by Washington.

In other action Friday, Wilmington is at Miami Trace and Greenfield at Hillsboro.

Jack McGowan At Cut-Off For Tourney

MIAMI (AP) — Jack McGowan, a little-known veteran on the tour, hasn't had so much attention since he blew a critical putt that cost him the title in the Texas Open at San Antonio early this year.

"I'm the guy they're talking about," he admitted today before teeing off in the first round of the $125,000 Danny Thomas-Diplomat Open Golf Tournament.

He was the 60th man on the official list of season money winners going into this, the last official stop on the PGA tour.

And since 60 is the cut-off spot for exemptions, he's the target for his fellow pros who are gunning for that coveted position.

Most of the attention in the tournament will be centered on the big guns—Arnold Palmer, Frank Beard, Dave Hill, Orville Moody, George Archer—in their quest for the top spot.

But the other struggle, that for positions around No. 60, will occupy a large portion of the pros.

It is vitally important to them. If they make the top 60, they are exempt from qualifying for next year's events. If they don't make it—and aren't otherwise qualified—they will have to compete on Mondays for spots in the tournament field.

Those qualifying events often are called the "suicide open," with an average of about 200 players competing for 20 spots.

McGowan, a 38-year-old veteran, is the key man at No. 60. He has $27,640 in official money.

SuperSonics Top Cincy Royals

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Oscar Robertson tossed in 36 points and moved into the third spot among all-time scorers in National Basketball Association Wednesday night but the Big O's heroics were in vain as the Seattle SuperSonics downed the Cincinnati Royals 118-117.

In other games Boston whipped Baltimore 113-105, San Diego bombed Chicago 146-131 and Detroit squeezed past San Francisco, 106-102.

Robertson, who has now scored 20,881 career NBA points, moved ahead of Bob Pettit, former St. Louis Hawks star on the all-time list. Petit had 20,880 points. Wilt Chamberlain and Los Angeles teammate Elgin Baylor remain 1-2 on the list.

Walnut Strengthens Hold On Top Spot In Junior Loop

Walnut strengthened its hold on the top spot in the Pickaway County Junior High Basketball League Wednesday, defeating Scioto, 56-48.

Other winners in league play were Ashville, 83-17 over Jackson; Saltcreek, in a 49-29 tilt at Pickaway; Monroe, in a 31-30 thriller at Washington.

Jay Brinker paced the undefeated Walnut Wildcats with a 25 point effort. Mike Hollingshead had 24 for the losers. Walnut was behind with less than two minutes to play, but tied the score at 48-48 with 1:15 showing on the clock and went on to score the last eight points of the tilt.

Ashville used all 15 of its players in the romp at Jackson. Jim Wilson, playing less than a half, was the top scorer of the game with 20 markers.

* * *

JAY Justice and Brad Luckhart scored 22 and 15 points respectively to lead Saltcreek's Warriors over Pickaway Pirates.

Walnut has a 3-0 record in the league. Scioto, Ashville, Saltcreek and Pickaway all have 2-1 marks, Monroe is 1-2 and Washington 0-3 for the season.

Next Wednesday, Pickaway is at Monroe, Saltreeck at Jackson, Walnut at Washington an Ashville at Scioto.

Deacon Jones Named Tops On Defense

NEW YORK (AP) — When Sonny Jurgensen, the fastest gun in the East is dumped six times in one Sunday afternoon, the defensive player of the week has to be in on the how.

Because the Los Angeles Rams awarded the game ball to Deacon Jones, the old all-pro defensive end, the Associated Press went along today and named him the defensive player of the week in the National Football League.

The Deacon did pass on the game ball to Lamar Lundy who had played his first game in 14 months after recovering from knee surgery.

It could have been the entire Rams' defensive unit because they all put terrific pressure on Jurgensen, the Washington quarterback, in scoring their 11th straight victory, 24-13 and clinching the Coastal Divsion title. Jurgensen was held to 50 yards net gain in the first three periods although he wound up with 21 completions of 29 throws for 206 yards but was intercepted twice. It was the heat put on by the front four, led by Jones, that forced Sonny to force passes that resulted in interception by Richie Petibon and Jim Nettles. Four of the six quarterback dumps came on third down.

"He's the top passer in the league," said the Deacon. "We rushed him so hard he had to throw to his backs. That's okay but Sonny has got to throw deep when he gets behind. When we got ahead we could turn the animals loose."

Biggest man on Michigan State's football team is sophomore tight end Jim Nicholson of Honolulu. He's 6-7 and weighs 267 pounds.

Right winger John McKenzie of the Boston Bruins was the National Hockey League's most accurate shooter last season.

Capital U Sparkles In Cage Loop

By THE ASSOCIATED PRES

Capital University is leaving little doubt in the minds of its Ohio Conference opponents that it will be a basketball team to be reckoned with this season.

The Crusader whipped defending champion Wittenberg 66-53 Wednesday night for its second surprisingly easy league victory this week. Capital downed perenially potent Kenyon 118-96 Monday night.

The triumph Wednesday night was Capital's first over the Tigers since the 1958 - 59 season.

Trailing by one basket, 33-31, at intermission, the Crusaders, led by Bob Arnold with 21 points, shot ahead early in the second half and never were behind again. Wittenberg's Larry Baker shot a game-high 23 points.

In another Ohio Conference game, Heidelberg beat Wooster 114-101, despite a 40-point scoring performance by the Scots' Tom Dinger. Co-captains John Hill and Steve Farnsworth led the Heidelberg attack with 37 and 36 points, respectively.

Elsewhere in Ohio college basketball action, Ashland trimmed Wilberforce 52 - 48, Penn State salvaged a 61-57 victory over Kent State, Youngstown State beat Cleveland State 67-48, Walsh downed Clarion State 85 - 79, Central State edged Thomas Moore 73 - 70, Ohio Northern defeated Bluffton 89-82 and St. Francis got past Steubenville 77-70.

Ashland, The Associated Press' No. 1 ranked small college team last season, pulled out its victory over Wilberforce by a layup by Wayne Fokolowski and a foul shot by Bubba Jones in the final 35 seconds of play.

After blowing a 13-point halftime lead, Penn State utilized near perfection at the foul line, converting 17 of 18 free throws, to defeat Kent State. Kent State shifted from a man-to-man defense to a 1-3-1 zone to close to within two points of the Nittany Lions but couldn't take the lead.

Youngstown went on a second-half scoring splurge to sew up its win over Cleveland State. Will Teague led scorers with 22 points.

Ray Syzltulksi netted 20 points as Walsh won its first game of the season against Clarion State of Pennsylvania.

Sophomore guard Danny Young sank four pressure free throws with 80 second left to play in Central State's come-from-behind victory over Thomas More. Young shared scoring honors with More's Tom Saalfeld at 22 points each.

Sparked by John Mellinger's 27 points and exhibiting a tough one-on-one defense, Ohio Northern wiped out a five-point halftime deficit to down Bluffton.

St. Francis met a tough adversary in Steubenville in a contest that was close until the final few minutes. The visitors' Kevin Porter led scorers with 19 points.

Findlay took an early lead and then held on to claim a Mid - Ohio Conference victory over Malone. Malone's Steve Schroder sank a game-high 27 points, while Findlay's top man was John Johnson with 17.

Pittsburgh Tops Detroit

Pittsburgh turned the other cheek and was rewarded for its efforts—a share of second place and a four-game unbeaten string.

Now if the Penguins and the other West Division teams in the National Hockey League could figure out a way to stop St. Louis.

Pittsburgh nipped Detroit 2-1 Wednesday night while the West leading Blues romped to a 3-1 victory over Oakland. The St. Louis victory extended its skein to 10 straight over the Seals and an over-all mark this season of 8-0 versus West Division clubs.

The Penguins, meanwhile, lulled Detroit into defeat—playing the entire game without a penalty called against them—and got goals from veteran Dean Prentice and rookie Michel Briers in the first period and held off the Red Wings, who got a middle session goal froom Frank Mahovlich.

In other games, New York and Chicago tied 3-3, Minnesota and Philadelphia beat Los Angeles 7-1.

CHS Tigers Meet Washington In League Battle

The Circleville High School basketball team faces a rugged twin bill this weekend, playing Washington C. H. Friday at Washington and hosting Grandview Saturday.

Washington was tabbed by the South Central Ohio League basketball coaches as the team most likely to win the loop crown this season.

Head coach Gary Shafer has seven returning lettermen from a team that lost only to defending league champ Miami Trace last year in loop action.

Steve Bowers, a third year letterman for the Lions, is their leading scorer this season. He is 6 feet 3 inches tall. The other returning starter is forward Steve Phillips, also 6 feet 3 inches tall.

* * *

OTHER senior lettermen include George Lee, 6-3; Jack Warner, 5-11; Dick Boggs, 6-0; Keith Evans, 5-10; Kim Evans, 5-10.

Up from the Blue Lion reserve unit for varsity action this year are David DeWeese, a junior at 6-3; Lonnie Wilson, a 6-0 junior; junior guard Dan Mahoney, 5-8; junior Jeff Pollock, 5-11; senior John Bath, 6-1; senior John Meriweather, 6-1.

CHS coach John Lawhorn will probably start with Ty Ankrom and Charlie Jackson at forwards, Bryce Brown at center and Randy Halley and Tom Bowers at guards.

Brown, at 6-3, is the tallest of the Tigers, but Circleville's shooting accuracy could offset the height advantage enjoyed by Washington.

In other action Friday, Wilmington is at Miami Trace and Greenfield at Hillsboro.

Jack McGowan At Cut-Off For Tourney

MIAMI (AP) — Jack McGowan, a little-known veteran on the tour, hasn't had so much attention since he blew a critical putt that cost him the title in the Texas Open at San Antonio early this year.

"I'm the guy they're talking about," he admitted today before teeing off in the first round of the $125,000 Danny Thomas-Diplomat Open Golf Tournament.

He was the 60th man on the official list of season money winners going into this, the last official stop on the PGA tour.

And since 60 is the cut-off spot for exemptions, he's the target for his fellow pros who are gunning for that coveted position.

Most of the attention in the tournament will be centered on the big guns—Arnold Palmer, Frank Beard, Dave Hill, Orville Moody, George Archer—in their quest for the top spot.

But the other struggle, that for positions around No. 60, will occupy a large portion of the pros.

It is vitally important to them. If they make the top 60, they are exempt from qualifying for next year's events. If they don't make it—and aren't otherwise qualified—they will have to compete on Mondays for spots in the tournament field.

Those qualifying events often are called the "suicide open," with an average of about 200 players competing for 20 spots.

McGowan, a 38-year-old veteran, is the key man at No. 60. He has $27,640 in official money.

SuperSonics Top Cincy Royals

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Oscar Robertson tossed in 36 points and moved into the third spot among all-time scorers in National Basketball Association Wednesday night but the Big O's heroics were in vain as the Seattle SuperSonics downed the Cincinnati Royals 118-117.

In other games Boston whipped Baltimore 113-105, San Diego bombed Chicago 146-131 and Detroit squeezed past San Francisco, 106-102.

Robertson, who has now scored 20,881 career NBA points, moved ahead of Bob Petit, former St. Louis Hawks star on the all-time list. Petit had 20,880 points. Wilt Chamberlain and Los Angeles teammate Elgin Baylor remain 1-2 on the list.

Walnut Strengthens Hold On Top Spot In Junior Loop

Walnut strengthened its hold on the top spot in the Pickaway County Junior High Basketball League Wednesda", defeating Scioto, 56-48.

Other winners in league play were Ashville, 83-17 over Jackson; Saltcreek, in a 49-29 tilt at Pickaway; Monroe, in a 31-30 thriller at Washington.

Jay Brinker paced the undefeated Walnut Wildcats with a 25 point effort. Mike Hollingshead had 24 for the losers. Walnut was behind with less than two minutes to play, but tied the score at 48-48 with 1:15 showing on the clock and went on to score the last eight points of the tilt.

Ashville used all 15 of its players in the romp at Jackson. Jim Wilson, playing less than a half, was the top scorer of the game with 20 markers.

* * *

JAY Justice and Brad Luckhart scored 22 and 15 points respectively to lead Saltcreek's Warriors over Pickaway Pirates.

Walnut has a 3-0 record in the league. Scioto, Ashville, Saltcreek and Pickaway all have 2-1 marks, Monroe is 1-2 and Washington 0-3 for the season.

Next Wednesday, Pickaway is at Monroe, Saltreeck at Jackson, Walnut at Washington an Ashville at Scioto.

Deacon Jones Named Tops On Defense

NEW YORK (AP) — When Sonny Jurgensen, the fastest gun in the East is dumped six times in one Sunday afternoon, the defensive player of the week has to be in on the how.

Because the Los Angeles Rams awarded the game ball to Deacon Jones, the old all-pro defensive end, the Associated Press went along today and named him the defensive player of the week in the National Football League.

The Deacon did pass on the game ball to Lamar Lundy who had played his first game in 14 months after recovering from knee surgery.

It could have been the entire Rams' defensive unit because they all put terrific pressure on Jurgensen, the Washington quarterback, in scoring their 11th straight victory, 24-13 and clinching the Coastal Divsion title. Jurgensen was held to 50 yards net gain in the first three periods although he wound up with 21 completions of 29 throws for 206 yards but was intercepted twice. It was the heat put on by the front four, led by Jones, that forced Sonny to force passes that resulted in interception by Richie Petibon and Jim Nettles. Four of the six quarterback dumps came on third down.

"He's the top passer in the league," said the Deacon. "We rushed him so hard he had to throw to his backs. That's okay but Sonny has got to throw deep when he gets behind. When we got ahead we could turn the animals loose."

Biggest man on Michigan State's football team is sophomore tight end Jim Nicholson of Honolulu. He's 6-7 and weighs 267 pounds.

Right winger John McKenzie of the Boston Bruins was the National Hockey League's most accurate shooter last season.

Consistency Pays Off In Racing At Atomic Speedway

Steady racing week after week even without a checkered flag can pay off in points, drivers at Atomic Speedway learned when the annual point fund distribution of almost $4,000 was made.

Chuck Fletcher of Columbus didn't win a single feature during the past season, but his consistently - high finishes brought him the top award in the distribution of the record $3,910.91 to 40 super-modified and hobby stock drivers.

A regular at the track for several years, Fletcher piled up 326 points worth a total of $390.90 despite only two second places and four third places in features. Fletcher was the runner-up in the Memorial Day championship and third in the Mid-Season and Labor Day championships.

With a quarter of feature victories, including the Mid-Season and Labor Day championships, Don Stump of Circleville was the hobby stocks point leader and received $195.45.

Eldon Shoemaker, president of Chillicothe Stock Car Racing Assn., told the drivers and car owners that the bonus distribution of $2,605.97 in the modified class and $1,304.94 in the hobby stocks division is about $1,000 more than the preceding year and that an even larger amount is expected next year.

Work has been started to extend the track between 75 and 80 feet toward the pit area to round off the No. 1 and 2 turns, extend the track from one-third mile to three-eights in the groove and to provide more room on the front straight for additional seating.

Only minor changes are being considered on regulations for the two classes and adjustments are being studied to eliminate any unfairness in the point system.

Bob Morgan of Chillicothe, winner of the Tri-State 100 and two other features, was second in the modified class for $260.60. Morgan also had three runner-ups and one third place.

Sam Erwin of Portsmouth, whose five victories included the Firecracker and Season championships, received third award of $195.45. Erwin also was runner-up in the Mid-Season championship and in one other feature.

Junior Smalley of Chillicothe, winner of the Labor Day championship and runner-up in three other features, was fourth worth $182.42.

Audie Swartz of Franklin Furnace, the 1968 point leader, finished fifth and received $169.39. Swartz won the Atomic and Buckeye 100's and the Memorial championship, was runner-up in the Tri-State 100 and Firecracker championship and in one regular race and was third four times, including the Season championship.

Bob Crace of Columbus, winner of the season championship and third in the Labor Day championship, received $130.30 for second in the hobby stocks class.

George Branscom of Chillicothe received $97.72 for third. He was runner-up three times and third five times.

TOP DRIVERS — Eldon Shoemaker (right), who has been renamed as president of Chillicothe Stock Car Racing Assn., presented the top bonus awards to a pair of first-time winners for the past season at Atomic Speedway. Chuck Fletcher of Columbus (center) topped the super-modified point fund without a feature victory and Don Stump of Circleville (left) was the leader of the hobby stocks class.

3 More Ohioans Die In Viet War

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two Ohio soldiers, Spec. 4 Robert O. Eder of Fremont and Spec. 4 James W. Lunsford Jr. of Chillicothe, have been killed in recent action in Vietnam, the Defense Department reported Wednesday.

Marine Lance Cpl. Dean R. Shilling of Rawson in Hancock County was listed as having died not as a result of hostile action.

Browns Eye Gate Record

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — The Cleveland Browns are expected to set a new season attendance record Sunday when the Green Bay Packers invade Municipal Stadium before a standing - room - only crowd of over 80,000.

The sellout is expected to put the season's total home attendance to 665,000, bettering the 1965 record mark of 640,410. Both marks include pre-season exhibition doubleheaders.

The Browns will be going up against one of the National Football League's stingiest defensive teams in the Packers. Green Bay has allowed only 170 points, bettered only by Minnesota's 103 and Detroit's 168. The latter two teams own the only wins over the Browns this season.

One of the key men in the Packers' defense is 12-year veteran linebacker Ray Nitschke.

Colonels Defeat Dallas, 123-109

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Indiana sat around for a couple of hours and watched helplessly as Kentucky continued its relentless persuit . . .before the Pacers did something about returning things to the old status quo.

The Colonels chopped down Dallas 123-109 in the opener of an American Basketball Association doubleheader at Indianapolis Wednesday night.

Laurelville News

By Mrs. Ray Poling

Celebrating their 36th wedding anniversary at their home in Lancaster Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Austin entertained with a family dinner.

Joining them were their children and families: Mr. and Mrs. Dick Brown, (Judith Austin) and children Kim, Judilyn and Staci of Norfolk, Va., Mr. and Mrs. John Stanhagan (Beverly Austin) and daughter Karen of near Dayton, Mr. and Mrs. James Austin and sons Todd and Ty of Lancaster, and Mrs. Austin's cousin, Miss Celesta Hoy of Laurelville. The Brown family left the following Wednesday for Calif. to make their home. Mr. Brown is a career man in the Navy and will be stationed in California.

Mrs. William Williams, secretary at the Saltcreek School, is recuperating from recent surgery. Mrs. David Fetherolf has been acting secretary for the school in Mrs. Williams' absence.

Mr. and Mrs. George Swepston of Laurelville and Mrs. Ruby Wharton of Columbus were Thanksgiving holiday guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. O. (Bud) Kelley and family of Perrysburg.

Mr. and Mrs. George Reid spent the holiday weekend with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Reid of Louisville, Ky.

Big 4 Agree To Seek Peace

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The Big Four have agreed to make new efforts to keep the Arab-Israeli conflict from endangering world peace.

Their representatives met for almost four hours Tuesday, resuming talks broken off five months ago, then issued a communique describing the situation in the Middle East as "increasingly serious and urgent." They reaffirmed their conviction that it must not be permitted to risk world peace and security.

U.S. Ambassador Charles W. Yost, Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Jacob A. Malik, French Ambassador Armand Berard and Lord Caradon of Britain declared in their communique that their objective remained unchanged—to promote establishment of a lasting peace in the Middle East on the basis of the U.N. Security Council resolution approved unanimously Nov. 20, 1967.

Social Security Answers

Q — I cancelled my Medicare insurance last year. Can I sign up again?

A — Yes, you can re-enroll, but only one more time, during the first three months of next year and only within three years after you cancelled your coverage.

Q — I have not had any medical expenses since I signed up for social security Medicare. Can I cancel my insurance?

A — Yes, you may do so by filing a notice of cancellation in the Social Security Office. Your coverage will be terminated at the end of the next calendar quarter. Before you cancel any insurance protection, it would be wise to consider the protection you are giving up in light of the high cost of illness and the possibility of sudden illness or emergency.

Q — My son was severely disabled in an auto accident when he was 19 years old. He had worked about two years in a gas station after he dropped out of high school. He applied for disability benefits in 1965, but the social security office said he had not worked long enough to qualify. I read about reduced work requirements for disability for persons age 21 to 31. Can't something be done for a boy disabled before he was 21?

A — The regular work requirement for disability is five years work in the 10 year period before the disabling injury or illness occurred. The 1967 amendments relaxed requirements for those disabled in the 10 year period from age 21 to 31. The minimum requirement which applies through age 24 is six quarters, or 1½ years work credit out of the three years before the disability. This minimum also applies to young men and women disabled at any age before 24. So the new law does apply in cases like your son's and he may now be eligible under its provisions. He should re-apply as soon as possible at the nearest social security office.

Q — I have been an ordained minister since 1955 and have never filed any statement that I wanted my earnings as a minister to be covered by social security. Is it too late for me to become covered under social security?

A — Beginning with taxable years ending after 1967 (generally, years beginning Jan. 1, 1968) your earnings as a self-employed minister are compulsorily covered by social security. However, your earnings can be exampt from social security coverage if you are opposed to this coverage for reasons of religious principles or conscience. To gain this exemption, you must file a request to be excluded from this taxation with Internal Revenue Service by April 15, 1970.

Cricket Game Delayed By Fire In Haystack

EAST HALTON, England (AP) — Rain is a frequent hazard in cricket, but fire doesn't often hold up play. It did when farmer Lawrence Blanchard captained a cricket team playing in a meadow at his Lincolnshire farm. A fire broke out in a haystack and the white-flannelled players dropped their bats and put out the blaze.
